Executioner For Murder, Inc., Is Slain By Gunmen

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (UP)—Albert Anastasia, "lord high executioner" of Murder, Inc., was shot to death today in a hotel barber's chair by two masked gunmen. The murder was carried out with the same cruel efficiency which had made Anastasia a name to be feared in the underworld for more than 20 years.

Anastasia, balding but still barrel-chested at 55, was shot four times at mid-morning as he sat in the barbershop of the Park-Sheraton Hotel at Seventh Avenue and 55th Street, a few blocks above Times Square. It was in the same hotel, then the Park Central, that Arnold Rothstein, a notorious gambler, was slain in one of the most sensational unsolved murders of the 1920's.

New Syndicate Seen

The killing, which came within six months of the attempt on the life of gambler Frank Costello, immediately raised speculation that a new syndicate was trying to gain control of the underworld. The gunmen walked into the barbershop while Anastasia was being shaved. Reclining in the chair with shaving lather on his face, Anastasia never saw his killers.

As the bullets pierced him, Anastasia staggered to his feet and then slumped to the floor, the barber's sheet dropped over him. Bullets hit his head, back and hand.

The killers, both believed to be in their late 30's, ran into the hotel lobby and disappeared through the 55th Street entrance. One of them dropped a .38-caliber revolver in the lobby.

Identified by Brother

Anastasia was identified by his brother, Brooklyn waterfront boss Anthony (Tony) Anastasia, who burst into tears and flung himself across his brother's body on the floor of the barbershop.

Anastasia was reported to have signed the death warrants of 63 men from 1931 until Murder, Inc. was smashed in 1940. He had been indicted four times for murder and once had been convicted and sentenced to the electric chair. But he beat all the charges.

Deputy Police Inspector John Green said Anastasia entered the barbershop shortly before 10:30 a.m. and sat down in chair No. 4. There are 10 chairs in the barbershop.

He said barber Joseph Bochchino had put shaving lather on Anastasia's face when the two men—scarves pulled up to their eyes—walked in through a glass door opening onto the hotel lobby. Without a word, they pulled pistols from their pockets and began firing. They left only after Anastasia was on the floor. Police found $1,900 in his pockets.

Cost Of Living Index Continues To Set Records

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The cost of living rose to a record high in September for the 13th straight month, the government reported today. But the rise was the smallest in 11 months and an official forecast a leveling off in prices.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics, said he expected little change in overall consumer prices over the next few months. He predicted that reductions in some prices would more or less cancel out increases in others.

The Labor Department's consumer price index last month climbed to an all-time peak of 121.1 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. The index, compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is based on a list of 300 items and service bought by the average city worker.

The September index was one-tenth of one per cent higher than in August, the smallest rise in 11 months.

The September increase brought wage boosts to more than 1,450,000 workers whose wages are tied to the price index. About a million railroad employees will get a five-cents-an-hour hike and 90,000 aircraft workers will get

The children ranged in age from 18 months to 10 years.

Sergeant Confined On Spying Charges

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The Army disclosed tonight that Sgt. Roy Rhodes, who admitted during the Abel spy trial in New York that he sold U.S. military information to the Russians, has been placed in confinement at nearby Ft. Belvoir, Va.

He was put under custody pending a decision on the filing of charges, the Army said.

The Army announcement came shortly after Russian Col. Rudolf I. Abel was convicted of stealing American military and atomic secrets for Moscow.

"The entire transcript of the Abel trial is being reviewed with a view to determining what action should be taken against Rhodes," the Army said in a statement.

"In light of testimony at the trial and the files in possession of

Expert Urges City Planning For Highway

Louis Bisso, city planning director of the City of New Orleans, yesterday warned against allowing the super federal highway to "eject itself" on the community prior to city planning.

Bisso, who appeared on forum at the 1957 Louisiana Realtors Convention here, delivered a three-fold speech on city planning in connection with the federal highway project.

His philosophy on city planning and the highway project was three-fold also, divided into people, planning and politicians. He was well received.

"Monroe will always be asleep unless the people pressure, the planner conceives and the politicians act," Bisso said.

When interviewed after his appearance on the forum, Bisso said the passage of the federal highway through Monroe was "okay" provided the city's permanent residential sections were taken in consideration first.

Consideration

And he pointed out, the consideration of the residential sections "should be done by city planners and not traffic engineers."

He said in his speech that his theory of city planning was "people and not automobiles."

Herbert Rosenheim of the Monroe Metropolitan Planning Commission was present for the highway forum. He asked several questions.

Bisso told Rosenheim that the City of New Orleans had its planning program before the federal highway project was begun. Joel Taylor, Shreveport city planner, said the same.

When contacted in City Hall after the forum, Mayor W. L. (Jack) Howard said the elevated federal highway over Monroe would not affect the city's "major residential sections."

Howard and other city officials were not invited to attend the forum.

Program Highlight

The highway forum was the highlight of yesterday afternoon's program for the convention. Taylor and Bisso were the featured speakers and Rep. Gilbert Faulkner acted as moderator.

"God help the community who has the highway ejected upon it without the first consideration of the affect it will have on the major residential sections," Bisso said.

Bisso said if consideration is not given to the residential sections, the highway through the city would shrink the outskirts and affect the arteries leading in and out of the community.

"If you stretch the economical rubber band it's liable to pop," Bisso said. He also stated that the major streets leading to the expressway would experience an increase in property value.

He urged the people to ask for blueprints on the city planning program and asked the railroaders to "please make sure that development of business centers on the outskirts of town will not be devastating to the downtown section."

He described the business sections in any downtown location as the "real value and heart of the city."

Bisso said since World War II, 53,000 miles of highways have been built in the United States.

Since World War II, he said 200,000 miles of automobiles have been constructed — "bumper to bumper."

"It's a wonder that cities have survived this far, but if we don't take steps toward planning, we won't survive," Bisso stated.

An address by Omer F. Kuebel, president of the association, of New Orleans highlighted the program yesterday morning. Approximately 250 persons are expected

Two More Large Unions Face Ouster

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The AFL-CIO high command today threatened the United Textile Workers Union and the Bakery Workers Union with suspension unless they oust their presidents and agree to other cleanup demands.

The AFL-CIO Executive Council gave the unions three weeks to remove James G. Cross, head of the 160,000-member Bakers Union, and Anthony F. Valente, president of the 40,000-member Textile Workers. Otherwise it will recommend their ouster from the AFL-CIO.

The Council also ordered the textile workers to cancel a $104,000 "severance pay" deal for Lloyd Klenert, who resigned under fire last Friday as secretary-treasurer of the textile union.

New Election

Both unions were told they also must agree by Nov. 15 to hold special conventions for a new election of officers. The elections would be held only after convention delegates were told of AFL-CIO corruption charges against the union.

The Council said that if the Textile Workers failed to agree to the terms, it would recommend expulsion of the union at the AFL-CIO convention opening Dec. 5.

The Bakery Workers were ordered to restore ousted Secretary-Treasurer Curtis R. Sims, who had opposed Cross and was fired for publicly airing charges against him.

Declared Ineligible

The Council said Cross must be declared "ineligible" for re-election at the special convention if the Bakery Workers want to stay inside the AFL-CIO.

Cross, Valente and Klenert were accused of mishandling union funds by the Senate Rackets Committee and the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee. Valente and Klenert were accused of using $57,000 in union funds as down payments on lavish homes.

The action against the Bakery and Textile Workers Union came just a day after the AFL-CIO Council voted 25 to 4 to suspend the giant Teamsters Union. The Teamsters Executive Board will meet here Wednesday to consider the union's next step.

Rocket Soared Over 4,000-Mile Level, U.S. Hints

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The Air Force said today that its "Farside" rocket apparently soared 4,000 miles into the skies over the Pacific last Monday, far surpassing all previous known altitude records.

Col. Eugene C. LaVier, who directed the balloon-launched firing at Eniwetok Atoll, said the four-stage rocket even might have topped the 4,000-mile mark but that he still was not sure.

This far exceeded the estimated maximum altitude of 560 miles attained by the Soviet satellite in its path around earth.

Data Flashed Back

LaVier said his estimates were based on preliminary studies of data flashed back from the speeding rocket by radio to anxious scientists waiting below.

The scientists had seen four previous tests fail and were unable to determine results of a fifth.

One of the experts who took part in the test series, Dr. Morton Alperin, said at Los Angeles that it was "far more important scientifically than Sputnik (the Russian satellite)."

Alperin, director of advanced studies of the Air Force's scientific research office, said: "I believe that in the one and quarter hours the Farside vehicle transmitted we got more information

U.S. Blasts Reds' Stand In Mid-East

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 25 (UP)—The United States charged today that Russia, by creating an artificial war scare on the Turco-Syrian frontier, hopes to "reduce the Middle East to the status of the captive nations of eastern Europe."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, in perhaps his most outspoken speech to the United Nations General Assembly, hurled the lie at Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and the Russian government for its charges against the United States and Turkey.

"The United States," he said, "will not be stopped by threats or defamation from continuing to offer its understanding and support to those nations of the Middle East which are being threatened by the Soviet Union and whose independence the Soviet Union seeks to destroy."

Offer Strong Support

"Let there be no question about our capacity to offer this support. We are strong and our allies are strong. The (U. N.) charter is the most powerful grand alliance against aggression. It could well become the most powerful alliance that the world has ever seen."

Lodge talked directly and intently to the Soviet delegation in the huge General Assembly Hall, crowded for the Syrian debate. He concluded:

"We will uphold the charter and have faith in God."

The delegates applauded for almost a minute after Lodge finished his Russian indictment. India's V. K. Krishna Menon, a leader of the "neutralist" bloc,

Ex-Sen. McKellar Dies At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 25 (UP)—Former Sen. Kenneth Douglas McKellar, who rose from a poor Alabama cotton picker to become one of the most powerful figures in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, died at a nursing home today. He was 88.

McKellar spent 41 years in Congress, five in the House of Representatives and the last 36 in the Senate. He was dean of the Senate, chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee and for nearly four years was acting vice president when Truman moved into the White House after Roosevelt's death.

McKellar had been in failing health since undergoing an operation last winter for removal of a duodenal ulcer. He also had suffered from kidney trouble.

Russian Colonel Convicted As Spy

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (UP)—Soviet secret police Col. Rudolph Ivanovitch Abel was convicted today of masterminding an espionage ring that gave U.S. atomic and military secrets to Russia.

The conviction could mean the death penalty for the 55-year-old veteran of 30 years of cloak and dagger work for his Kremlin masters.

Abel is the highest ranking Soviet official ever convicted of espionage in the United States. Abel was found guilty on all three counts of the indictment against him charging he conspired to transmit U.S. defense secrets to Russia, that he gathered such information and that he failed to register with the government as a foreign agent.

Fantastic Subterfuges

The jury of nine men and three women brought in its verdict after only 3 hours and 55 minutes of deliberation. During the nine day trial the jurors heard prosecution testimony that Abel used a fantastic series of subterfuges to smuggle secrets out of the country, including hollowed-out coins, pencils, nails and cufflinks which contained microfilm.

Federal Judge Mortimer W. Byers set sentencing for Nov. 15. Abel, a native of Russian Georgia, was taken to the federal

Police Juries Urged To Fight Power Grab

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 25 (UP)—Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr. today urged police juries not to surrender any more power to the state and to fight "any more power grabs."

Martin, a political foe of Gov. Earl Long, said his remarks were "not directed necessarily at the present administration, although it is more guilty probably than any other in the history of the state."

He spoke to the secretaries and treasurers organization, State Police Jury Assn.

Plans Effort To Rally All Free Nations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower gave notice today he might fly to Europe to help rally free nations into a "genuine partnership" needed to protect their peoples better from Russia's threats.

The White House disclosed this prospect in a final communique summing up Eisenhower's three days of talks with Britain's Prime Minister Macmillan on moves to meet Russia's stepped-up military-scientific challenge.

The 1,500-word windup statement calls for a meeting of "special character" by representatives of the 15 North Atlantic Treaty nations in mid-December.

"The arrangements which the nations of the free world have made for collective defense and mutual help are based on the recognition that the concept of national self-sufficiency is now out of date," the Eisenhower-Macmillan statement said.

Need Partnership

"The countries of the free world are interdependent and only in genuine partnership, by combining their resources and sharing tasks in many fields, can progress and safety be found. For our part, we have agreed that our two countries will henceforth act in accordance with this principle."

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerly and C. Peter Hope, Macmillan's press aide, issued the joint communique which followed four private talks between the leaders lasting nine hours.

Macmillan then left by plane for Ottawa. He said he was "very satisfied" with Eisenhower's promise to keep "close and fruitful collaboration" between American and British atomic scientists.

Won't Rule It Out

To a barrage of reporters' questions, the White House said it would not rule out "the possibility that Eisenhower and Macmillan would both represent their governments at the forthcoming NATO Council session."

The Council normally meets in Paris, but there was also the possibility it could convene in Washington.

Eisenhower and Macmillan said they would seek to forge a British-American partnership which would serve "as an example which we believe can and should

U. S. Requests Du Pont Sale Of Its GM Holdings

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (UP)—The government today recommended that the Du Pont holdings of 63 million shares of General Motors Corp. stock be sold to the owners of Du Pont common stock.

The proposal was made by the Antitrust Division of the Justice Department. It would allow 10 years for an orderly transfer.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in June that Du Pont illegally controls General Motors through its ownership of 23 per cent of GM's stock—63 million shares worth approximately 2 1/2 billion dollars.

The Supreme Court sent the case back to Judge Walter J. La Bay in Chicago—where the antitrust action against E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. began—to determine how much of GM stock should be disposed of by the Du Pont interests.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 25 (UP)—The United States charged today that Russia, by creating an artificial war scare on the Turkey-Syrian frontier, hopes to "reduce the Middle East to the status of the captive nations of eastern Europe."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, in perhaps his most outspoken speech to the United Nations General Assembly, hurled the lie at Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and the Russian government for its charges against the United States and Turkey.

"The United States," he said, "will not be stopped by threats or defamation from continuing to offer its understanding and support to those nations of the Middle East which are being threatened by the Soviet Union and whose independence the Soviet Union seeks to destroy."

Offer Strong Support

"Let there be no question about our capacity to offer this support. We are strong and our allies are strong. The (U. N.) charter is the most powerful grand alliance against aggression. It could well become the most powerful alliance that the world has ever seen."

Lodge talked directly and intently to the Soviet delegation in the huge General Assembly Hall, crowded for the Syrian debate. He concluded:

"We will uphold the charter and have faith in God."

Ex-Sen. McKellar Dies At Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 25 (AP)—Former Sen. Kenneth Douglas McKellar, who rose from a poor Alabama cotton picker to become one of the most powerful figures in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, died at a nursing home today. He was 88.

McKellar spent 41 years in Congress, five in the House of Representatives and the last 36 in the Senate. He was dean of the Senate, chairman of the powerful Appropriations Committee and for nearly four years was "acting vice president" when Truman moved into the White House after Roosevelt's death.

McKellar had been in failing health since undergoing an operation last winter for removal of a duodenal ulcer. He also had suffered from kidney trouble.

Russian Colonel Convicted As Spy

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (UP)—Soviet secret police Col. Rudolph Ivanovich Abel was convicted today of masterminding an espionage ring that gave U. S. atomic and military secrets to Russia.

The conviction could mean the death penalty for the 55-year-old veteran of 30 years of cloak and dagger work for his Kremlin masters.

Abel is the highest ranking Soviet official ever convicted of espionage in the United States. Abel was found guilty on all three counts of the indictment against him charging he conspired to transmit U.S. defense secrets to Russia, that he gathered such information and that he failed to register with the government as a foreign agent.

Fantastic Subterfuges
The jury of nine men and three women brought in its verdict after only 3 hours and 35 minutes of deliberation. During the nine day trial the jurors heard prosecution testimony that Abel used a fantastic series of subterfuges to smuggle secrets out of the country, including hollowed-out coins, pencils, nails and cufflinks which contained microfilm.

Federal Judge Mortimer Byers set sentencing for Nov. 15. Abel, a native of Russian Georgia, was taken to the federal (Continued On Page Two-A)

Police Juries Urged To Fight Power Grab

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 25 (AP)—Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr. today urged police juries not to surrender any more power to the state and to fight "any more power grabs."

Martin, a political foe of Gov. Earl Long, said his remarks were "not directed necessarily at the present administration, although it is more guilty probably than any other in the history of the state."

He spoke to the secretaries and treasurers organization, State Police Jury Assn.

"Americans complain," he said, "of continual grasping of power and authority by the federal government from the states."

But Martin added, "surrender of power . . . on the one hand, and the forceful grabbing and taking of power, on the other" was oc-

Plans Effort To Rally All Free Nations

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower gave notice today he might fly to Europe to help rally free nations into a "genuine partnership" needed to protect their peoples better from Russia's threats.

The White House disclosed this prospect in a final communique summing up Eisenhower's three days of talks with Britain's Prime Minister Macmillan on moves to meet Russia's stepped-up military-scientific challenge.

The 1,500-word windup statement calls for a meeting of "special character" by representatives of the 15 North Atlantic Treaty nations in mid-December.

"The arrangements which the nations of the free world have made for collective defense and mutual help are based on the recognition that the concept of national self-sufficiency is now out of date," the Eisenhower-Macmillan statement said.

Need Partnership

"The countries of the free world are interdependent and only in genuine partnership, by combining their resources and sharing tasks in many fields, can progress and safety be found. For our part, we have agreed that our two countries will henceforth act in accordance with this principle."

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty and C. Peter Hope, Macmillan's press aide, issued the joint communique which followed four private talks between the leaders lasting nine hours.

Macmillan then left by plane for Ottawa. He said he was "very satisfied" with Eisenhower's promise to keep "close and fruitful collaboration" between American and British atomic scientists.

Won't Rule It Out

To a barrage of reporters' questions, the White House said it would not rule out the possibility that Eisenhower and Macmillan would both represent their governments at the forthcoming NATO Council session.

The Council normally meets in Paris, but there was also the possibility it could convene in Washington.

Eisenhower and Macmillan said they would seek to forge a British-American partnership which would serve "as an example which we believe can and should (Continued On Page Two-A)

Du Pont Sale Of Its GM Holdings

CHICAGO, Oct. 25 (AP)—The government today recommended that the Du Pont holdings of 63 million shares of General Motors Corp. stock be sold to the owners of Du Pont common stock.

The proposal was made by the Antitrust Division of the Justice Department. It would allow 10 years for an orderly transfer.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in June that Du Pont illegally controlled General Motors through its ownership of 23 per cent of GM's stock—63 million shares worth approximately 2 1/2 billion dollars.

The Supreme Court sent the case back to Judge Walter J. La Bay in Chicago—where the antitrust action against E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. began—to determine how much of GM stock should be disposed of by the Du Pont interests.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 25 (AP)—Federal alcohol tax unit agents said today they raided a still in Warren County and arrested three Tupelo men.

West said Riley had been arrested in Vaiden Oct. 18 with 795 gallons of corn whisky in a truck.

Will Appeal Later

Chief defense attorney James B. Donovan, former attorney for the Office of Strategic Service and a prosecutor in the Neurnberg war crimes trials, indicated that no appeal would be forthcoming until after the sentencing.
Abel was convicted of leading a ring of spies that tried to recruit U.S. soldiers to spy against their country and radioed military secrets to Russia from an office in Brooklyn almost under the noses of federal officials.
The operations of the spy apparatus were barred by U.S. counter-spy Boris Moros, movie director and composer of "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers."

Abel, a master spy for the Soviet NKVD since 1927, was arrested Aug. 7 in McAllen, Tex., near the Mexican border, where he had been held for 30 days for deportation for violating immigration regulations.
If sentenced to death, Abel would be the first foreign national to die under the federal law that sent Julius and Ethel Rosenberg to the electric chair as Soviet spies in 1953.

Coldest Weather Sweeping Texas

By UNITED PRESS
The coldest weather of the season swept through Texas Friday, bringing snow and rain to the Panhandle and cool temperatures to the rest of the state.

The weather bureau predicted the cold air from the north will continue to pour into Texas and keep temperatures down to near freezing in the Panhandle again Friday night.

The front left two inches of snow on the ground at Vega and one inch at Pampa, both in the Panhandle. A mixture of snow and rain fell at Amarillo where the temperature dipped to the freezing point, 32 degrees. Some of the snow there stuck to cars.

Snow mixed with rain also fell at Dalhart. Pampa received an inch of snow, Borger .26 of an inch of rain and Amarillo 14.

Agriculture officials said the moisture will aid pastures and wheat.
A major portion of the nation was under the influence of the cold air and snow also fell in Oklahoma, Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas.

It is significant, Lodge said, that the accusations that Turkey is about to attack Syria, "were first launched not in Damascus, but in Moscow—even though Syria was supposed to be the intended victim of the imaginary conspiracy."

"Now," he said, "the Soviet government pretends to believe that the United States is 'prodding' Turkey to attack Syria. While it does not really believe this charge, it has spread it across the world and into this forum."

"The United States is pushing no country into war; we are steadfastly against aggression in any form and from any quarter."

"We are therefore entitled to ask what the real explanation is for the behavior of the Soviet Union. All the evidence shows what its true aims are:

"1. By creating the appearance of a threat to Syria's security and then pretending to remove the threat, they want to pose before the world as the savior of the Arabs.

"2. They want to bully Turkey with threats of extinction and frighten the rest of us into doing nothing.

"3. They evidently believe that their agents and sympathizers inside Syria will make political gains from the artificial threat of war which has been generated.

"4. They want to blacken the name of the United States and to destroy the friendship which has existed historically between the people of the Middle East and the United States.

"5. Finally, by creating an artificial war scare the Soviet government hopes to further its expansionist purposes and, in accordance with its historic aim, reduce the Middle East to the status of the captive nations of eastern Europe."

Report Arabian King May Marry Lebanese Girl

BEIRUT, Lebanon, Oct. 25 (AP)—Aristocratic circles in Lebanon buzzed tonight with reports that Saudi Arabia's 35-year-old King Saud may marry a 19-year-old Lebanese schoolgirl. They met when King Saud was here last week on a state visit.

Confirmation was lacking but a schoolmate and the girl's home indicated the reports are true.

She is Ferial Solh, niece of Lebanon's Premier Sami Solh.

The immensely wealthy and patriarchal Saud, whose kingdom rides an ocean of American-produced oil, can have as many as four wives at a time by the law of the Koran. Details of his present marital status are not known here.

The parents of the girl could not be reached for confirmation but a member of the household, who refused to be identified, told a reporter on the telephone: "Nothing formal has yet been done, but the story makes sense."

King Saud's younger brother, Prince Talal, in 1955 married Ferial's cousin, Muna Solh daughter of the late Lebanese Premier Riad Solh.

Martin, stripped by the 1956 Legislature of his jobs as state insurance commissioner and custodian of voting machines, continued:

"... The same governor and the same Legislature that graciously 'took over' the payment of the entire costs of operating voting machines, also took over from the elected secretary of state's office the authority to operate, store and maintain the voting machines."

"While a so-called board was set up, the practical effect... has been to transfer those important functions to another appointee of the governor."

"The insurance department... formerly under the elected representative of the people, the secretary of state, was taken from that office and put under an appointee of the governor."

This trend, he concluded, should be offset by stronger local government, namely more effective police juries.

By UNITED PRESS
The coldest weather of the season swept through Texas Friday, bringing snow and rain to the Panhandle and cool temperatures to the rest of the state.

The weather bureau predicted the cold air from the north will continue to pour into Texas and keep temperatures down to near freezing in the Panhandle again Friday night.

The front left two inches of snow on the ground at Vega and one inch at Pampa, both in the Panhandle. A mixture of snow and rain fell at Amarillo where the temperature dipped to the freezing point, 32 degrees. Some of the snow there stuck to cars.

Snow mixed with rain also fell at Dalhart. Pampa received an inch of snow, Borger 26 of an inch of rain and Amarillo 14.

Agriculture officials said the moisture will aid pastures and wheat.
A major portion of the nation was under the influence of the cold air and snow also fell in Oklahoma, Wyoming, Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas.

Report Arabian King May Marry Lebanese Girl

BEIRUT, Lebanon, Oct. 25 (AP)—Aristocratic circles in Lebanon buzzed tonight with reports that Saudi Arabia's 55-year-old King Saud may marry a 19-year-old Lebanese schoolgirl. They met when King Saud was here last week on a state visit.

Confirmation was lacking but a schoolmate and the girl's home indicated the reports are true.

She is Ferial Solh, niece of Lebanon's Premier Sami Solh.
The immensely wealthy and patriarchal Saud, whose kingdom rides an ocean of American-produced oil, can have as many as four wives at a time by the law of the Koran. Details of his present marital status are not known here.

The parents of the girl could not be reached for confirmation but a member of the household, who refused to be identified, told a reporter on the telephone: "Nothing formal has yet been done, but the story makes sense."

King Saud's younger brother, Prince Talal, in 1955 married Ferial's cousin, Muna Solh daughter of the late Lebanese Premier Riad Solh.

grasped Lodge's hand in congratulation as he proceeded from the rostrum to the U. S. delegation seats.

It is significant, Lodge said, that the accusations that Turkey is about to attack Syria, "were first launched not in Damascus, but in Moscow — even though Syria was supposed to be the intended victim of the imaginary conspiracy."

"Now," he said, "the Soviet government pretends to believe that the United States is 'prodding' Turkey to attack Syria. While it does not really believe this charge, it has spread it across the world and into this forum."

"The United States is pushing no country into war; we are steadfastly against aggression in any form and from any quarter."

"We are therefore entitled to ask what the real explanation is for the behavior of the Soviet Union. All the evidence shows what its true aims are:

"1. By creating the appearance of a threat to Syria's security and then pretending to remove the threat, they want to pose before the world as the savior of the Arabs.

"2. They want to bully Turkey with threats of extinction and frighten the rest of us into doing nothing.

"3. They evidently believe that their agents and sympathizers inside Syria will make political gains from the artificial threat of war which has been generated.

"4. They want to blacken the name of the United States and to destroy the friendship which has existed historically between the people of the Middle East and the United States.

"5. Finally, by creating an artificial war scare the Soviet government hopes to further its expansionist purposes and, in accordance with its historic aim, reduce the Middle East to the status of the captive nations of eastern Europe."

"So, with another 'contribution' by the state another important function, another important fiscal matter, was moved from the police juries to the state, a little further removed from the people."

Martin, stripped by the 1956 Legislature of his jobs as state insurance commissioner and custodian of voting machines, continued:

"The same governor and the same Legislature that graciously 'took over' the payment of the entire costs of operating voting machines, also took over from the elected secretary of state's office the authority to operate, store and maintain the voting machines."

"While a so-called board was set up, the practical effect... has been to transfer those important functions to another appointee of the governor."

"The insurance department... formerly under the elected representative of the people, the secretary of the state, was taken from that office and put under an appointee of the governor."

This trend, he concluded, should be offset by stronger local government, namely more effective police juries.

two cents. Some 250,000 electrical workers will receive a hike of one-half of one per cent.

The take-home pay of an average factory worker with three dependents stood at $75.63 last month, compared with $74.70 a year ago. But the worker actually could buy less as a result of a 3.4 per cent rise in consumer prices during the year.

Food prices dropped eight-tenths of one per cent in the August-to-September period, but this was offset by advances in other fields. Housing costs climbed five-tenths of one per cent, clothing seven-tenths of one per cent and medical care three-tenths of one per cent.

The drop in food prices, normal for this time of year, reflected autumn harvests and a seasonal increase in animal slaughtering.

The company's confession—and promise of reform—was given to the committee by Wallace Tudor, vice president in charge of personnel for the company.

Franchise Is Granted Here To Video, Inc.

The Monroe City Council, in a called session yesterday morning, granted a franchise to Video, Inc., of Monticello, N.Y., for establishment of a television antenna service within the city limits of Monroe.

West Monroe already has granted such a franchise, and work will be started immediately, with plans being started for the Monroe phase of the project.

The program calls for construction of a 500-foot antenna on a plot of ground already obtained across the road from Adcock-Booth sub-division on Ki-Ro-Li Woods Road in West Monroe.

The franchise contract calls for posting of performance bond of either $5,000 or $25,000 (amount to be determined by the City Council at a later date), payment of $1.50 per annum to the city for rental on any utilities commission poles used.

A similar rental will be paid to Southern Bell Telephone Company and to Louisiana Power and Light Company.

Proposed Charge
Video, Inc., proposes to charge each subscriber $125 initial or installation fee, plus $3.50 per month. In addition to the pole rental, the firm will pay to the City of Monroe two per cent of the monthly service charge collected from each subscriber.

Construction of the tower will require three specialty crews of four men each. After all construction work is completed, there will be 10 people employed in operation of the system. The operation will be supervised by Jim Morgan and Jim Hall of West Monroe.

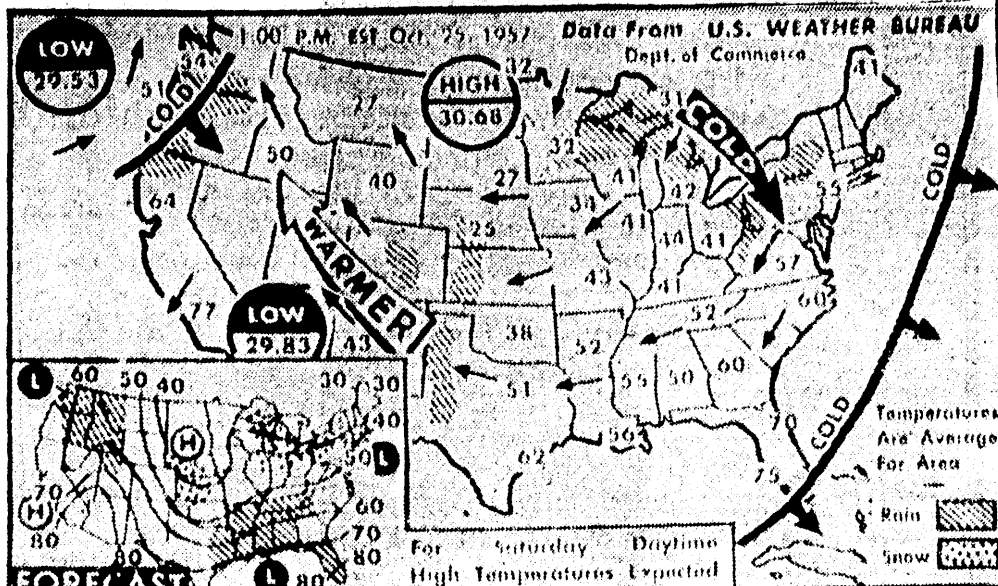

Video, Inc., will bring to the subscribers the two stations in Shreveport, the one station in Alexandria, and the one in El Dorado, with eventual addition of Jackson and possibly Baton Rouge. The stations to be provided will bring in programs from ABC, CBS and NBC.

U.S. Farming Envied

Ever since the launching of the Sputnik, Russian propagandists, including Communist Party Chief Khrushchev, have been blowing their tops about Russian superiority. Russians claim to excel the United States in science, military preparedness and in the arts and political philosophy.

But in one field they admit our superiority—agriculture. It is a source of their envy. Senator Homer E. Capehart of Indiana has just returned from a visit behind the iron curtain. The senator visited a collective farm just outside Moscow where more than 400 families were working 2,000 acres. On another farm of 1,500 acres more than 300 families on his 2,400-acre farm in Indiana. When a group of Russians came over here a couple of years ago it was reported that they were amazed to find a 300-acre farm in Iowa worked by a father and son.

Capehart is opposed to the program of scarcity undertaken by the last three federal administrations in relation to farm production. He does not believe it is sound policy to pay farmers to produce less. Instead of limiting farm production, Capehart is in favor of a gigantic crash program of research for increased industrial uses of agricultural products. The senator says: "It is a shame that we have been unable to take advantage of the American farmer's amazing efficiency. For more than 20 years our bureaucrats, and members of congress, have been racking their brains to get away from abundance instead of learning to live with it. Device after device has been tried to treat with the farmer's production, the result of his genius, by getting him to reduce his production. We have been trying to shrink the entire economy around American agriculture, apparently blind to the dire results it would have if we should succeed."

There seems to be no doubt that if the United States were to spend anything like the amount of money on research for increased uses of farm products that it pays to farmers for not growing crops developments along this line should be as startling as the launching of Sputnik.

American officials apparently are adopting the same sleepy attitude toward agricultural development that they allowed to overcome them in the missile until Russia launched Sputnik.

Are we waiting for Russia to outdo us in agriculture before we awaken to the vast potentialities of our farms?

Brainwash Movies

One of the most controversial scientific developments ever to face the people of any nation will be brought before the theater-going people of the United States within a short time. Already the proposal for use of this strange means of affecting the public has drawn some violent protest and it is certain to arouse more.

We refer to the so-called "feely" movies, in which the audience not only is reached through the conscious mind, by way of the eyes and ears, but is reached through the subconscious mind in such a way that there can be no resistance.

"Feely" movies are based on exactly the same principle as that used in hypnotism. That is, direct contact is made with the subconscious mind without contact with the conscious mind. In hypnotism, the operator talks to the subconscious mind of the subject while holding the attention of the conscious mind by some other means. The same principle is used in "feely" movies.

In making movies of this kind, suggestions are flashed on the screen along with the regular pictures but at such a high rate of speed that there is no consciousness that the suggestion has been made.

It has been found that, with training, some people can read whole sentences and perhaps whole paragraphs within one one-hundredth of a second. In this kind of reading the words are actually visualized and realized. If, however, the speed is increased, say to one three-hundredth of a second, there would be no realization that the words had been visualized. The impression would be received only by the subconscious mind, without the protection ordinarily given by the conscious mind. Unprotected, the subconscious mind accepts as true anything that is said to it.

A hypnotized person can be made to drip with perspiration or to shiver with cold merely by the suggested words of the operator. The same thing can be done in "feely" movies.

A story out of Hollywood on "feely" says:

"For example, should the characters in a picture be caught in a blizzard, the words 'you are freezing to death' could be flashed on and off and the audience literally would be shivering in the aisles."

In horror pictures the audience could be made to feel all of the terror that would be experienced under actual situations of that kind.

Brainwashings of all kinds would be possible, since the audience would have no warning and no conscious knowledge of the suggestions that were being made.

In one movie of this kind popcorn sales jumped tremendously when suggestions were made that the audience was hungry for popcorn.

First movie of this kind to be made is named "ESP" (extrasensory perception), which goes before the cameras this month at Westin-Rush Productions.

C. W. Westin, president of the outfit, says the picture will be scientifically controlled, under the supervision of Dr. Robert E. Corrigan, inventor of the system, which he calls Precon.

The story goes on to say:

"It's a good thing, too. No telling what might happen if Precon got out of control."

Reserve Board Action Now Believed Needed

Does a man who has definite plans to buy a 1958 car decide to give the purchase a second thought because he reads on the front pages about the violent fluctuations in the stock market? Even though he himself doesn't own a single share of stock and is not directly involved?

Does a woman who intends to return her living room on the installment plan next spring make up her mind that the old furniture can do for another year because she reads workers are being laid off from coast to coast due to cutbacks in defense spending? Even though her husband's job seems completely secure?

Does a corporation's board of directors which has blueprinted an expansion program call a special meeting to reappraise the program because the directors are reading about declines in factory orders, profits, commodity prices? Even though the corporation's own sales are rising and its expansion program appears as warranted today as three months ago?

Can, in short, a "depressed" psychology send us speeding toward a downturn we need not have—a business recession which would be bitterly wasteful, terribly dangerous to the entire free world? Our psychological reaction to what is now going on in our economy will be vital in determining whether business is going to move from today's plateau into a new upturn or a down trend of possibly serious proportions.

For, to put it without quibbling, if the answer to the questions I've put above is "yes," we really can be in for trouble. Certainly, the man who owns the stocks feels "poorer" today than he did last July. The stock market has gone through the worst cleanout since 1946 despite the historic recovery on Wednesday but the very fact that he has lost money on paper makes him feel less enthusiastic.

Obviously, the woman whose husband has been laid off his job is not going to buy things she doesn't have to buy.

And understandably, the business firm in a major profit squeeze is going to reconsider all programs for spending.

Still, the key question is not the psychology and actions of consumers and businesses already affected by the flattening out in our economy. The key question is the psychology and actions of those not yet affected—for these are the vast majority.

The business statistics themselves continue impressively good. But the headlines day after day are about layoffs of workers from Long Island to Long Beach.

The reports day after day are about corporations which are finding making profits increasingly difficult even on record sales.

And the wildly fluctuating stock market—first plunging, then skyrocketing—has now made the front pages.

As the head of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, Alfred Hayes, put it the other day, "The greatest change in the last two or three months has been not in business statistics, which on the whole have changed very little, but in business sentiment, which has deteriorated appreciably."

Hayes then added that he considers this change in sentiment "a healthy development, if held within reasonable limits."

Month Of Bad Dreams Is Brought To Close

Today brings to an end a full 31-day month—a month in which troops came out of the sky in full battle dress to integrate a public school and to begin the disintegration of national unity and mutual understanding among Americans as nothing else in our modern history has done.

It was the month, too, when a satellite was shot into the sky by an enemy nation in circumstances humiliating to all Americans beyond comparison with anything that has happened on the international scene in the memory of any living person.

The first of these, the mailed fist of a great aggregation of military might, occurred on September 24. That was not the beginning of the Little Rock story, but what went before that was merely prologue. The history-making event was that a president of the United States had sent troops into a southern state against that state's consent for the first time since Rutherford B. Hayes withdrew them to end Reconstruction Era I.

It was done under circumstances and warnings to leave no doubt that Little Rock was to be an object lesson, that the troubled south could expect other Little Rocks and more soldiers in full military regalia to subjugate any opposition to integration which took the form it had taken in Little Rock.

Russia Far Ahead Of U.S. In Subs

When our navy braid gets goose bumps over an enemy threat, it must give us pause.

When a top commander dares to issue a public statement without prior Pentagon approval, it's worth a worry.

Vice Admiral Roscoe Good, commander, naval forces Far East, says Russia now has more submarines in the Far East than we have in our entire navy.

At the end of the Big War, Russia was number seven among the world's sea powers. Today she is number two. And it's largely submarine superiority.

Russia has more than 450 submarines to our 110.

And Russia is building additional subs, two a week!

Admiral Good says, "I shudder to think what 100 subs out of Vladivostok could mean to us in the event of hostilities."

"The increasing risk that the Soviet navy will be able to dominate the sea approaches to Asia and Europe is one of our most formidable problems."

You understand, of course, what the Russians have in mind is a capability to sink our fleet while, from shore subs, they could aim nuclear missiles at every primary target in the United States.

Maybe that "scientific breakthrough" could save surface navy craft in any future war. As is, they are doomed by these nuclear-powered undersea hunters.

Maybe that "scientific breakthrough" is upcoming. Dr. Howard Wilcox, former Manhattan Project scientist, says our navy is working on an underwater missile.

This device conceivably could destroy entire submarine bases.

Dr. Wilcox, now in charge of weapons development at our China Lake, Calif., naval ordnance test station, describes the new weapon with such words as "incredible" and "fantastic."

Not perfected yet, but then it's axiomatic around the Pentagon: "If it works, it's obsolete."

So perhaps the Soviets are betting on the wrong horse. If we can perfect a device which would search out and destroy subs and their bases, Russia's frantic submarine building program will have been an ineffectual extravagance.

Meanwhile, however, with words of anxiety not heard from top military men since the days of MacArthur, the fleet admirals want it known that the enemy is moving into control of the sea... from below.

And that the enemy's present offensive capability far exceeds our defensive capability.

Our "life insurance" is still in the laboratory. But this is no cause for us to "run wild" in any specific line of research, lest we emulate what we hope will be the error of the Russians, who are putting most all their eggs in their undersea fleet.

Perhaps the most unforgettable phrase and one which went a long way toward sowing seeds of bitterness that will poison race relations in the south for years was that of General Edwin A. Walker: "There were minor incidents yesterday... there will be none when I am through."

It is possible, perhaps probable, that it was an off-the-cuff, unheeded remark, spoken by an officer unaccustomed to dealing with large groups of newspapermen in press conferences. If he sounded like a new bully boy in town it was because he was speaking as the commander of troops armed to the teeth and a good part of the people who were creating the incidents were the unarmed best stock in the United States and who were under an emotional shock at the presence of the soldiers; there at what they thought was the first step to enforce integration on the south at the point of the bayonet.

The result of Little Rock has been that legions of men and women who almost idolized President Eisenhower a few weeks ago now speak of him only in bitter hate. The esteem and prestige he once enjoyed took a frightful beating. The final decision concerning Little Rock was a political one. No one with the slightest knowledge of the facts of life doubts that.

How successful will it be from the political standpoint? The hope of making the south a two-party section by building up a predominantly white man's party there has been dashed. If there is a real Republican party in the south it will be predominantly black, built up from the Negroes who may be enfranchised as a result of the civil rights bill passed in the recent session of congress.

There could be a boomerang in the north, too. Mayor Dilworth of Philadelphia after outbreaks there said: "The southern situation has had tremendous repercussions in the north. Our problem in the north, for months is to see that these tensions, these primitive hatreds, die down. We must calm ourselves down." Forty police officers in Boston battled to break up a race tussle in which 1,000 whites and Negroes slugged each other following a discussion of Little Rock which began between a white and a Negro girl. There were incidents elsewhere.

On top of Little Rock came Sputnik. We were beaten in a race we did not have to lose. We were beaten despite astronomical budgets, and expenditures and taxes that have caused the term "squanderbust" to be coined for the Eisenhower administration.

The story of the satellite is only partially written. It has not been helped by the allying and brush-off technique of the administration, capped by the absurd flippancy of Sherman Adams, the president's assistant, at San Francisco, that the United States is not interested "in high score in an outer space basketball game."

Alcoholic Beggars Now Admit Drinking

Dr. Goff represents the experienced clergyman who is such a deft Applied Psychologist, and keeps a sharp eye on the character that makes most of us teaching psychologists take a back seat. Our clergymen are deemed "soft touches" by beggars and chronic drunks so they must learn to be somewhat skeptical.

Case W-330: Dr. Charles R. Goff, aged about 59, is the remarkable pastor of the skyscraper Chicago Temple in the heart of the Chicago Loop.

He and I were in college together at Northwestern University and I have taught the Dixon Bible Class at this church for the past 24 years, so we have maintained a long and steadfast friendship. Recently we had dinner together after church. Conversation veered around to the many derelicts who constantly beset clergymen for money.

"Last Sunday, I encountered a new approach," Dr. Goff began. "After I had left the sanctuary and started down the street, a fellow tapped me on the shoulder. 'I'm an alcoholic,' he confessed in his opening sentence."

"Indeed," Dr. Goff added, "I now find that a lot of smart panhandlers no longer try to hide their addiction to liquor. Formerly, they'd vow they never touched a drop, even though they were reeking of liquor fumes."

"But nowadays it has become fashionable to be an alcoholic. The magazines talk about the condition and convey the idea that it is a respectable diagnosis to be classified as a liquor addict."

"So this fellow started out saying he was an alcoholic. But I just nodded. Then he went on to say he had joined Alcoholics Anonymous, but that didn't work. 'Again, I nodded. So he apparently thought he would jolt me, for he then said he had about decided to turn himself in at our Psychopathic Hospital for treatment."

"I'm sure he expected me at this point to tell him not to do so, but to let God have a chance, for he realized I was a clergyman."

"But he was just too smooth in his sales talk, so I knew he was insincere. As a result, I simply said, 'I think you have diagnosed your case very well. It might be a good thing for you to go right over to the hospital as you have suggested."

"Well, this stymied him for a moment. He hadn't anticipated my taking that slant, so he didn't know what to say next."

"Finally, in apparent resignation, he added, 'All right, I'll do what you say. But, ah-h, would you mind giving me carfare out to the hospital?'"

"I would gladly have offered him carfare, as most of us clergy do time after time, but I knew he was simply trying to play me for a sucker."

"Besides, the hospital is only a few blocks west. So I said, 'Oh, you won't need to take a bus. Just start walking on west. It is just a few blocks and the fresh air will be good for you.'"

"Now many unsophisticated young folks might have misjudged my action as unchristian and cruel."

"But we clergymen get used to these routine panhandlers and can spot them almost before they get their first sentence out of their mouth."

"If they seem even halfway sincere, we usually stake them to a meal, but when they recite the same glib patter of the chronic panhandler, we shy away from them."

"If a professional beggar will develop a new 'line' and make a new sales pitch, I don't mind giving him a quarter and sometimes a half dollar just for his ingenuity, even though I am pretty certain that I am being taken in."

"But it irks me to hand cash to an apparently starving beggar and then see him slip into a tavern and spend in on another drink. 'Clergymen are admittedly soft touches, but we usually develop a sixth sense that permits us to sift the deserving from the professional."

"Young clergymen are taken in quite easily, but they soon develop a healthy skepticism. We may take the hungry to a nearby restaurant, but we know better than to hand over ready cash."

Thought Needed In Race With Russia

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Cries for "Action!" and "crash" programs to counteract the Russian armaments race have an impression of panic which is just as bad, or worse, than the pre-Sputnik complacency. What we need is to take a long, round-the-compass look before we leap. The programs we choose this time may be of a sort which will alter both our fiscal-industrial structures and our moral-political codes.

The United States' position today is similar to that of Russia's at the end of World War II. As belatedly as the United States Communist Movement, the USSR was confronted with the Hiroshima bomb, the "ultimate" weapon of that era and an American monopoly. To all appearances, World Communism was thwarted in further advancing and lay at the mercy of its sworn enemies, headed by the all-conquering and invincible USA.

Russia's predicament of 1945, and her escape from it, is cogently discussed vis-a-vis the American predicament of 1957 in the super-significant book, "Nuclear Weapons and Foreign Policy." The author is Henry A. Kissinger. He is the executive spokesman for the brain-trusted Council on Foreign Relations, a group of thinkers who spent many months at the useful job of sitting and contemplating the American position in world affairs. Dr. Kissinger's analysis of Russia's post-war reaction is intended as a word to the wise, that is, to American policy-makers.

What did Russia do? And what, by delicate and indirect suggestion, is America being urged to do? The Russian dictatorship drew a bead on the bull's-eye of its own self-interest. Never mind the facts! Never mind the truth! Never mind the ethics and the morality! Propaganda for home-consumption hushed up the scientific details of the Hiroshima-Nagasaki blasts, played down the military effectiveness of the A-bomb, but it played up its inhumanity above all other weapons. Propaganda for overseas consumption and for foreign policy was for "peace" and the banning of atomic weapon testing.

Meanwhile, the Russians instituted a "crash" program for the production of these same inhuman weapons and their successors and carriers.

This is an example of pure self-interest. It is uncontaminated by a single consideration outside its single purpose. But it is also an example of unadulterated cynicism. It leaves no room for truth-telling, self-government or soul-searching. It is as simple and sinister as a naked dagger, but it has worked like a charm. In 12 years, the mere twinkle of an historical eye, Russia came from a position of defenselessness and diplomatic checkmate to a position of eye-to-eye strength with the Yankee colossus.

Is this an example by which America should try to profit? Shall we become cynical in our foreign policy? Shall we toss aside every consideration except American self-interest? This means a measure of dictatorship, and a great deal of untrue propaganda. It means accepting military force and terrorism as the field of competition with the Communist system.

Whatever our answers, we should not plunge into a counter-armaments race with Russia until we have contemplated, at least, and with intense solemnity, these questions. So far, they have not been contemplated by our political leaders. A number of Democratic senators have rejoiced in the opportunity to attack the Eisenhower Administration, which has certainly not been blameless. And the Administration minister have rushed around with a great show being busy at missile programs and research projects. But I personally don't believe, and I doubt if the American public believes, that this is a matter to be adjudicated by political applause-meters. Changing parties in the White House and Congress won't get us out of this fix.

There is another concept to be considered before we commit our energies to a post-Sputnik program. It is an audacious contradiction of President Eisenhower's credo: "There is no alternative to peace." Stated without negation the concept reads: "Nuclear warfare is a legitimate arm of American foreign policy. It should be used wherever it falls to our advantage."

Postmasters To Attend Confab Here

Twenty Northeast Louisiana Postmasters are slated to attend the annual Postmasters' Conference in Monroe next Wednesday morning. The public is invited to attend a brief movie on postal work after the meeting.

Main speakers will be three men from New Orleans. Matt H. Creed, district operation's manager, and F. L. Logan, district service officer, will present plans for handling the heavy amount of Christmas mails.

M. M. McWalters, district transportation manager, will review the most effective manner to handle movement of mail.

New Orleans Postmaster A. Frank Fairley will attend the conference, bringing with him a 15-minute film "Men, Mail and Machines." This is the most recent postal film, and shows the entire range of problems which post office employees run up against.

The film will start at 11:15 a.m. following the meeting. Monroe Postmaster Woodrow W. Hathorn invites all area residents to attend, and stresses that the film will be of the most benefit to those who mail large quantities.

It will be presented in the court room on the second floor of the post office building.

Starting at 8:30 a.m., the conference for all postmasters from first and second class offices will get underway, in Room 302 of the postoffice.

The conference will conclude with the showing of the movie.

Syria Orders Air Raid Alert

DAMASCUS, Syria, Oct. 25 (UP)—The first air raid alert of the current Syrian-Turkish crisis chased Syrians to their action stations and civilians to cover today.

Russian-built MIG-15 jet fighters of the Syrian air force swooped overhead before the all-clear sounded five minutes later. Officials said afterward that unidentified planes were detected in the vicinity of the Syrian capital, but they refused further comment.

The alert caught most Syrians scurrying toward Moslem sabbath church services. Many civilians left the streets, but a few continued in the direction of church.

Others sat out the alert in coffee shops.

A practice alert was held in the northern city of Homs, 100 miles north of Damascus, Thursday night. It was one of the first areas where arms were distributed to civilians after Syria and Russia charged Turkey had massed its troops on the Syrian border and planned an invasion.

Mr. Hicks said he was "delighted" with the growth of the two newspapers and said the new plant "is evidence they are embarking on a new era." He stated the plant was the finest he had seen for newspapers this size or "even much larger."

POSTAL INSPECTORS WARN

An Old Racket With New Twist Operated

Watch out. An old racket with a new twist is whirling through the nation, and postal inspectors are investigating operation of the scheme in this area.

"U. S. Savings Bond chain letter scheme" — that's the term that officials have for this new method to defraud people of $37.50.

Savings bonds are used to try to make the deal look respectable — but the net result is the same: the crooks who start the chain usually are lucky to get back slightly more than they invest.

at the risk of criminal prosecution. Other participants seldom get anything, usually lose out altogether. L. H. Stephens of Ft. Worth, Tex., inspector in charge of this postal region, has sent a warning letter to Monroe Postmaster Woodrow W. Hathorn, explaining how the fraud works, and requesting that people be alerted against it.

Method Explained
This is how it works: Someone shows you a list, sometimes called part of a "Savings Bond Club." You are allowed to become a new member by purchasing two bonds — cost: $37.50. You give one to the other person, and send the second bond to the name at the top of a list furnished by the "enrolling member."

You next make two copies of the list. On them, you change the order of names slightly. At the bottom of the list goes the name of the person you just mailed a bond to. Above his name goes yours.

Now, you've got to try to sell those lists to two other persons, to get your name pushed up one notch on the lists.

This could go on, with each person raking in a harvest of bonds... but it doesn't work that way. Soon, no interested people can be found to buy another of those lists... your name never reaches the top... you don't get your money back... and you can be arrested for using the mails for fraud — that's how a scheme like this is labeled by law enforcement agencies and the Post Office Department.

Merchandise Theft Suspect Held Here

City police were holding a 32-year-old Negro on a charge of theft of merchandise from a local establishment yesterday afternoon. It was believed the merchandise was valued at less than $20.

The suspect was identified as Jimmie Jones, 100 Eighth st. ce. He also was booked on a charge of carrying a concealed knife. No bond had been set last night.

Detroit is a city of many nationalities. Its largest foreign population is Canadian, about 65,000.

Postmasters To Attend Confab Here

Twenty Northeast Louisiana Postmasters are slated to attend the annual Postmasters' Conference in Monroe next Wednesday morning. The public is invited to attend a brief movie on postal work after the meeting.

Main speakers will be three men from New Orleans. Matt H. Creed, district operation's manager, and F. L. Logan, district service officer, will present plans for handling the heavy amount of Christmas mails.

M. M. McWalters, district transportation manager, will review the most effective manner to handle movement of mail.

New Orleans Postmaster A. Frank Fairley will attend the conference, bringing with him a 15-minute film "Men, Mail and Machines." This is the most recent postal film, and shows the entire range of problems which post office employees run up against.

The film will start at 11:15 a.m. following the meeting. Monroe Postmaster Woodrow W. Hathorn invites all area residents to attend, and stresses that the film will be of the most benefit to those who mail large quantities. It will be presented in the court room on the second floor of the post office building.

Starting at 8:30 a.m., the conference for all postmasters from first and second class offices will get underway, in Room 302 of the postoffice.

The conference will conclude with the showing of the movie.

Syria Orders Air Raid Alert

DAMASCUS, Syria, Oct. 25 (UP)—The first air raid alert of the current Syrian-Turkish crisis chased soldiers to their action stations and civilians to cover today.

Russian-built MIG-15 jet fighters of the Syrian air force swooped overhead before the all-clear sounded five minutes later. Officials said afterward that unidentified planes were detected in the vicinity of the Syrian capital, but they refused further comment.

The alert caught most Syrians strolling toward Moslem sabbath church services. Many civilians left the streets, but a few continued in the direction of church.

Others sat out the alert in coffee shops.

A practice alert was held in the northern city of Homs, 100 miles north of Damascus, Thursday night. It was one of the first areas where arms were distributed to civilians after Syria and Russia charged Turkey had massed its troops on the Syrian border and planned an invasion.

terday, Mr. Hicks said he was "delighted" with the growth of the two newspapers and said the new plant "is evidence they are embarking on a new era." He stated the plant was the finest he had seen for newspapers this size or "even much larger."

POSTAL INSPECTORS WARN

An Old Racket With New Twist Operated

Watch out. An old racket with a new twist is whirling through the nation, and postal inspectors are investigating operation of the scheme in this area.

"U. S. Savings Bond chain letter scheme" — that's the term that officials have for this new method to defraud people of $37.50.

Savings bonds are used to try to make the deal look respectable — but the net result is the same: the crooks who start the chain usually are lucky to get back slightly more than they invest . . . at the risk of criminal prosecution. Other participants seldom get anything, usually lose out altogether.

L. H. Stephens of Ft. Worth, Tex., inspector in charge of this postal region, has sent a warning letter to Monroe Postmaster Woodrow W. Hathorn, explaining how the fraud works, and requesting that people be alerted against it.

Method Explained — This is how it works: Someone shows you a list, sometimes called part of a "Savings Bond Club." You are allowed to become a new member by purchasing two bonds — cost: $37.50.

You give one to the other person, and send the second bond to the name at the top of a list furnished by the "enrolling member."

You next make two copies of the list. On them, you change the order of names slightly. At the bottom of the list goes the name of the person you just mailed a bond to. Above his name goes yours.

Now, you've got to try to sell those lists to two other persons, to get your name pushed up one notch on the lists.

This could go on, with each person raking in a harvest of bonds . . . but it doesn't work that way. Soon, no interested people can be found to buy another of those lists . . . your name never reaches the top . . . you don't get your money back . . . and you can be arrested for using the mails for fraud — that's how a scheme like this is labeled by law enforcement agencies and the Post Office Department.

Indians, Lions Renew Grid Rivalry Tonight

Off to their poorest start in years, Southeastern, the defending Gulf States Conference champion, invades Northeast State's Brown Stadium tonight at 8 o'clock with the hometown Indians hoping to take advantage of what appears to be a sub-par Lion eleven.

Although a winner of only one game so far this year, Southeastern is certainly no patsy as Northeast Coach Devone Payne well knows. Both Lion defeats were to outstanding teams, East Texas State and Mississippi Southern, and they tied Southwestern, which whipped the Indians, 6-0 three weeks ago. Coach Stanley Galloway's men won their first game of the season last week when they scored 14 points in the final quarter to nip a strong Florence State College team, 21-19.

If the Indians do dump Southeastern, it'll be the first time they've ever whipped a Lion team coached by Galloway. In fact, the Indians have only scored 20 points against six Galloway teams and all those were counted in one game, the 1952 contest that ended up at 21-20. The Lions won 33-0 in 1951 and 28-0, 40-0 and 35-0 in 1953 through last year.

Northeast faces tonight's clash with second string right halfback Keith Amos out of action with a chest injury suffered last week against McNeese and aggravated during practice this week. Starting left half Tony Hartsell has been hobbled with a charley horse this week but is expected to start. Another Indian back, reserve fullback Mack Powell, is still having trouble with an old knee injury and will be at half-speed.

Good news for Payne is the return to action of second string guard Tony Peccon who missed the McNeese game with a cleat gash in his leg.

Still hunting their first conference win, Northeast can get it tonight and also put a healthy dent in Southeastern's chances of repeating as Gulf States champs. Northeast has lost four games to Southwestern and McNeese and lost to Stephen F. Austin and beat Delta State in non-league games.

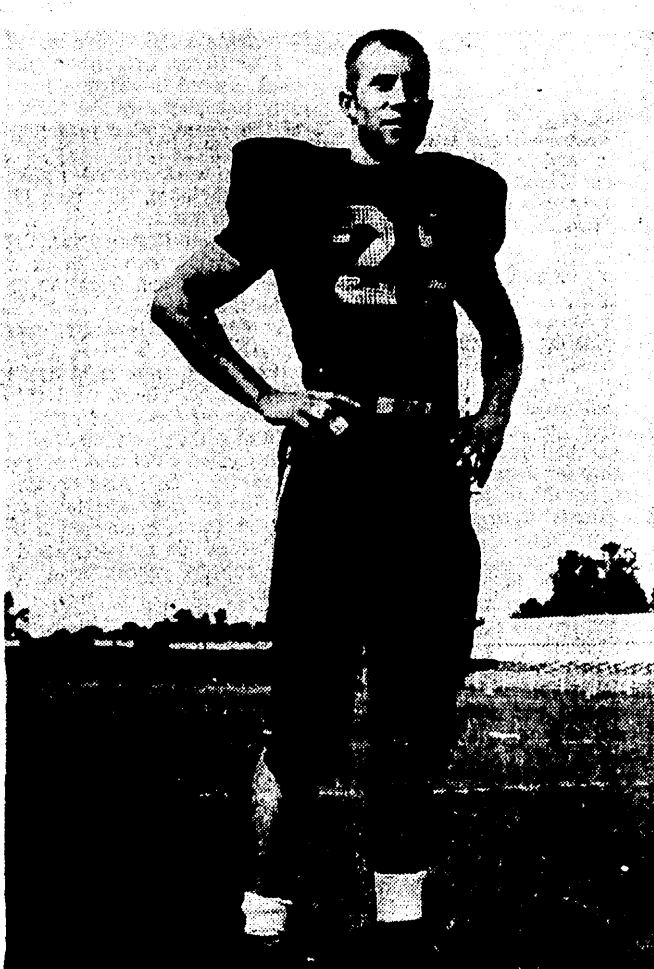

The only team left without a defeat in Gulf States play, Southeastern could win the title by sweeping its remaining conference games. The tie with Southwestern is the Lions' only conference result and leaves them tied for first with two other teams with a .500 percentage.

Payne has this to say about his opponents: "Southeastern always has a strong team but they're not as strong as usual this year but still tough. Their record is not so good but they've played some mighty strong teams."

Assistant coach George Luffey, Southeastern has a good backfield lead by the conference's halfback Tommy Bell. "Their line is not as good as usual," says Luffey.

Southeastern will start Oscar Lofton and Paul Sharp at the end posts, Mack Barlow and Bob Ricketts at the tackles, Russell Massey and Ken Bailey at the guards and George Thomas at center. Quarterback Bill Hawkins and right half Frankie Bourgeois will join Bell and Dugas in the backfield.

Payne will start his usual lineup unless Hartsell's charley horse gives him too much trouble. Joe Driskill and Jim Knox will be the ends, Jim Bren and Jim Britt at the tackles, Gerald Elkins and Lloyd Williams the guards and Buck Anderson the center. Nathan Zametoff will be at quarterback, Hartsell at left half, Don Reynolds at right and Robert McGough at full.

WILSON RUNNER-UP

Revolta Is 8-Stroke Mississippi Winner

OCEAN SPRINGS, Miss., Oct. 25 (UP)—Veteran pro Johnny Revolta, shooting par or better for the third straight day, won the Mississippi Open golf title today by eight strokes.

The steady and cautious Revolta turned in a two-under-par 70 at the Gulf Hills Country Club where he is winter pro for a three-day total of 213 and first prize money of $300.

Spec Wilson of Laurel was runner up with 221 and led the amateurs who played for $1,000 in merchandise prizes. Wilson had a two-over-par 74 for the 6,611-yard course which was swept by strong winds during the day.

Al Bange of Keesler Air Force Base came in third with 223 for second place honors in the amateur division. Roy Pope of Ocean Springs, the host pro, was next with a 78 for a 225 total and took $200 prize money.

Fifth place went to Davis Love, Hattiesburg pro, who turned in the only other par or better card today—a 71—for a total of 225 to take $150 prize money. Two Jackson amateurs, Maynard Craft and Jim Coleman, were next with 227. Coleman was co-medalist with Revolta with 71, then slipped to a 74 and 82 for the next two rounds.

Revolta, who began the tourney with a 71, turned in a par 72 yesterday and toured the course today in 35-35, one under par on each nine.

The 1953 state open will be played at the Vicksburg Country Club, which will set the date for the tourney. The State Amateur will be played at the Gulf Hills course. The tentative starting date was set for June 4.

SEVENTH IN ROW

Undeclared Ruston Tags Bastrop, 20-0

BASTROP, La., (Special)—Ruston's Bearcats, looking more like conference champions every Friday, rolled to their seventh victory of the season here last night with a 20-0 triumph over the Bastrop Rams.

It was the sixth defeat of the season for the Rams, who have won only over Neville, that being a 13-12 conquest earlier in the season.

Ruston scored once in each of the first, second and third quarters and rushed for 175 yards to Bastrop's 142.

Don Childs went over right guard from the nine in the first quarter to start the scoring for Ruston. He came back in the third to score again, this time from the one.

But it was Sammy Simonton, who scored for the Bearcats in the second quarter, on a 65-yard run that set up Childs' second touchdown.

Simonton took a Bastrop kick on his 10 and went to the Ram 25 before being stopped by Joe Alkins. He scored on a 33-yard run in the second. Jackson kicked both extra points.

Ruston notched 15 first downs to Bastrop's eight. Bastrop passed 12 times and completed five. The Bearcats threw only one pass, that one going incomplete.

Dodgers Deny Dessen Hired From Senators

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (UP)—Charley Dessen remained out of sight but E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, a vice president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, today denied reports that Dessen has been hired by the Dodgers as a consultant.

"There's nothing to it," said Bavasi, referring to a report that Dessen would give up his front office job with the Washington Senators and rejoin the Dodgers, whom he managed in 1953.

"We haven't even talked to him. I talked to Cavin Griffith about Charley and Griffith said he's got a 2-year contract with the Senators."

"I have absolutely not talked to Dessen."

The Washington Star earlier today said Dessen was headed to the Dodgers.

Chattanooga 20-0 Victim Of Southern

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 25 (UP)—Mississippi Southern capitalized on Chattanooga mistakes to score two touchdowns in the first eight minutes of play and went on to defeat the Moccasins 20-0 before 5,000 homecoming football fans tonight.

The Southerners scored their first touchdown with slightly more than four minutes gone on a 20-yard pass from quarterback George Sekul to halfback J. C. Arban. Ollie Yates converted.

The score had been set up when the Southerners recovered a Chattanooga fumble on the UC 25 on the first play of the game.

Southern tallied again with eight minutes gone on a 34-yard pass-run from Yates to halfback Lawrence Meeks. The visitors had intercepted a Johnny Green pass on the UC 48 to begin the drive.

The Southerners third six-point drive came eight plays after the second half kickoff when fullback Buddy Supple plunged from the 3. Yates' conversion made the score 20-0.

Sports Trails

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 20 (UP)—Like the guy who said all the good men were dead and he wasn't feeling so good himself, quite a few major college football teams that classed themselves at least on the rim of greatness weren't feeling so good today.

Michigan State, Naturally, the Spartans, rated No. 1 last week in the Associated Press poll, were rudely awakened by a Purdue team which was supposed to be only another rung in the Michigan State ladder to success. The Boilermakers won, 20-13.

Minnesota, for another, the sleeping giant of the north, figured by some critics as the best of the Big Ten, if not the nation, were slapped down by Illinois, 34-13. Oregon State, hitherto unbeaten, was stomped by UCLA, 26-7, and Arkansas found not only the eyes, but the feet and clutching hands, of Texas on it in losing, 17-0.

Oklahoma, which is like money in the bank for those who wish to wager a few bob on games, romped as expected. Duke still looks like a powerhouse, and Iowa has a pretty good seat up front in the Big Ten as a result of its victory over Wisconsin while Michigan State and Minnesota were getting their lumps.

Several other well-regarded teams had good scares. We were particularly interested in Navy, not only because we watched them Saturday, but because we had a sneaking suspicion Coach Eddie Erdelatz had a sleeping giant there which at any moment might awaken to wreck everything in sight.

The middies played a rather hapless Georgia team in the Oyster Bowl here, a Shrine charity game with as fine trimmings in the way of music and floats and other daddies as we have seen in a long time.

The middies won, 27-14, which seems convincing enough, but when it is recalled Navy led at the quarter, 14-0, and at the half, 21-0, and then saw its margin cut to seven points early in the final period, it is apparent the victory wasn't achieved without travail.

Navy is difficult to figure. It is big enough, plays hard enough, gets expert quarterbacking and passing from Tom Forrestal and Pat Flaherty. But just when you begin to think it is rolling in an unstoppable manner, it blows a fuse somewhere along the way.

It may have been a slight case of cockiness Saturday, as when a team piles up a 21-0 halftime lead it is bound to get the idea it can do just about as it pleases the rest of the game.

Whatever the reason, the two teams might have switched uniforms between halves, as it seemed the Yankees and Braves switched uniforms in the recent World Series.

Anyway, the Georgia backs began to run like striped-tailed kangaroos, piling through the startled Middle defense as if the Navy line was soggy paper. The Bulldogs earned their two touchdowns, and might have done even better if Jimmy Orr, as slick and fast and elusive running back as we have seen in quite a spell, hadn't been injured.

To Navy's credit, it came back obviously when things began to look bad, but when it was all over it knew it had been in a ball game.

Navy has great potential, and if it eliminates the bugs before it meets Army in the game, the service classic should turn out to be just that. Army's victory over Hefty Pitt Saturday shows Coach Earl Blaik has a team that is going somewhere very rapidly, despite the delirium in the Notre Dame game.

For three months Jimmie wondered what was causing a lump on his lip.

A doctor examined him and found a piece of chipped tooth embedded in his lip.

TIGER LINE TOUGH

Neville Storms Tallulah In 24-To-0 Grid Victory

By SAM HANNA

Danny Neumann was colder than the temperature last night as the Tallulah Trojans ran into a hot Neville football team that turned in its best performance of the year for a 24-0 victory.

The Tiger forward wall took its cue from the reliable Willie Ragan and the speeding Gene Howard, who were both offensive sparkplugs and held Neumann to a gain of 44 yards.

Neville threw up an air-tight defense in fielding a team that evidently knew when and where Neumann was going. They had am-point to halftime, it was the Tigers' ball game.

Last week's Neville game was preceded by homecoming ceremonies. But last night, a Canada goose, apparently running a week late, mistook the early birds in the stadium for a gathering of ganders and tried its darndest to join the party.

The goose circled the field for five minutes and three times flew under the wires, cropped its wings to land, but was frightened away by would-be duck callers on the sidelines and in the stands. Some questioned the goose's mission. Was it just a loyal fan following the Trojans from the sandhairs of the Delta? Or was it a white, ill bird of fate come to roost atop the stadium like a vulture in wait of prey?

Regardless, the jeers from the stadium scared the fowl away. The contest followed.

ple reason for doing so, for Dangerous Dan came to Monroe with 12 touchdowns noted on his belt.

It was Neville's fourth win of the season against two set backs. The loss was Tallulah's second, also its second against a bigger foe. The Class-A Trojans have won five.

Ragan's opening quarter field goal from the Tallulah 12 was the first of Neville's well-earned scoring. Howard scored in the second and third and Ragan returned to tally in the third also. He kicked all three extra points.

Meanwhile, Neumann was carrying the ball 10 times, netting 44 yards for a better than four-yard per carry average. His best effort was for 11 yards. Neville out-gained Tallulah, 256 to 107.

Howard's eight-yard run in the second quarter sent Neville to a 10-0 halftime lead as Tallulah barely had an opportunity to handle the ball during the time.

But Neville came back even hot-gamer until the finish.

Ragan went into the end zone from the one to make it 16-0 in the third quarter, kicked the conversion and it was 17-0.

Then Howard returned later in the period on an 18-yard gallop that ended the scoring in the ball game. Ragan converted.

It was Marvin Smart's crowd-pleasing pass catch that set up Neville's second touchdown when he grabbed the ball after it had been deflected from a Tiger receiver.

Smart was nailed at the Tallulah 30 and the Bengals rolled away to the 17. Ragan carried to the five; Smart to the four and two plays later Willie carried it in.

Later in the period, Neville recovered a Tallulah fumble on the Trojans' 32 and Willie rambled for 22 to the 20. Then Howard carried it 18 for the score.

The Tigers entered their dressing room at halftime with a lead provided by Howard's spirited running. Neville gained 99 yards on the ground in the first half to the Trojan's 45. On five attempts, Neumann picked up 17.

Ragan set up his own field goal try in the first quarter when he broke loose for 15 yards from within Tallulah's 25. The Trojans refused to give up a touchdown, however, and so Willie's toe sent the ball through the uprights from the 12.

Then came three runs by Howard in the second quarter that enabled the Tigers to leave the field at halftime with a fairly comfortable lead.

Howard galloped for 17 yards midway the second quarter on a play that carried the Bengals into Trojan territory. However, a fierce tackle knocked the wind from Howard and he was removed from the game.

Neville kept hammering away, first driving to Tallulah's 35, then to their 28. At this point, Howard returned and weaved through the Tallulah defense for 12 — to the 12.

He sailed around right end from the eight, headed for the sidelines and pounded paydirt with a Trojan at his heels. Willie's toe did it again, and it was Neville's 24-0.

However, it was a tight Neville defense that kept Tallulah on its heels. The Trojans fumbled on their second play from scrimmage and the Neville field goal followed.

AT MIDWAY POINT

Maxwell, Lichardus Lead Hesperia Golf

HESPERIA, Calif., Oct. 25 (UP)—Youthful Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., former national amateur champion, and Babe Lichardus, Hillsdale, N. J., held the lead at the midway point today in the $15,000 Hesperia Open with 1345, finishing 10 strokes under par.

The pair not only were tied in their 36-hole score but they shot identical rounds of 34-33—67 on today's round after having both shot 67s Thursday when they were in a three-way tie for second on stroke behind Frank Boynton of Orlando, Fla.

Tied for second at the end of the second round with 136 were the pre-tournament favorites, swarthy Doug Ford of Mohopac, N. Y., who has won four tournaments this year, and young Doug Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., both of whom shot 688 today to go with the same scores of Thursday.

Ford was out in 37, one over par, but he charged home with a five under par 31, best nine-hole score of the tournament. He shot an eagle three on the 12th hole and had three birdies.

Tied at 137 were Gene Litter, El Cajon, Calif., and J. C. Gossie, Knoxville, Tenn. Litter shot a 69 today while Gossie shot a 67 which tied the day's best effort.

Lichardus, a slender 29-year-old pro whose best previous effort was a tie for seventh at Houston, was playing flawless golf for two days during which he has not been over par on any hole. Maxwell played less steadily but more sensationally. He had three bogies but overcame these with five birdies and an eagle three on the par five eighth hole.

Boynton, the youthful Florida pro, shot a par 72 today after Thursday's 66 but he experienced a two-stroke penalty on the first hole when his tee shot landed behind a juniper tree, forcing him to drop out and take the penalty. Bo Winger of Odessa, Tex., was also assessed a two-stroke penalty but this was for showing up late. Despite that he shot 35-34—69 to stay among the leaders.

The field was cut after today's round to the 60 leaders and four amateurs with a 147 cutoff score.

Rebs Favored By 8 Points Over Porkers

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25 (UP)—Unbeaten Mississippi is a solid eight points favorite over once-beaten Arkansas in their interconference game tomorrow.

But nobody who has followed the 49-year-old series between the two teams is counting Arkansas out in at least half of the 20-game series, the underdog has won.

Mississippi was also an eight point favorite last year when Arkansas came out on top 14-0.

The weatherman predicts cloud crisp weather tomorrow with a rain. Since both teams are fast with a smoothly geared T-offense scoring should be the order of the day. A capacity crowd of about 30,000 is expected at Crump Stadium for the 2 p.m. (CST) kick off.

Arkansas has two quarterback just as capable, seniors George Walker and Don Christian.

Ole Miss won its first five games with comparative ease, beat Trinity of Texas 44-0, Kentucky 15-0, Hardin-Simmons 34-7, Vanderbilt 28-0, and Tulane 50-0.

Arkansas no doubt has far the tougher schedule so far this season and this could work to the Razorbacks advantage tomorrow. They beat Oklahoma State 12 Tulsa 41-14, Texas Christian 26 Baylor 20-17, before losing to T as last week 17-0.

The Razorbacks substitute units, with the second about effective as the first. While Mississippi is equally as deep in the backfield, its second line does have the experience that Arkansas lacks.

Clifford Ann Cops Her 3rd State Crown

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25 (UP)—Eighteen-year-old Clifford Ann Creed won the Louisiana women's state golf title today for the third straight year.

The Opelousas girl who won the women's Tam O'Shanter, "World" and Southern Amateur championships earlier this year, closed her match for the fourth straight day on the 13th to beat Mrs. A. T. Higgins Jr. of New Orleans 6 and 5.

Miss Creed, a sophomore at Lamar Tech in Beaumont, Tex., was two up at the end of the morning 18-hole round of the championship finals.

Three up after 27, she won the 28th, halved the 29th and took the 30th and 31st, the latter the 13th hole of the afternoon round.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (UP)—The first nationally televised National Hockey League game of the 1957-58 season will pit the New York Rangers against the Boston Bruins at Madison Square Garden next Saturday, Nov. 2

Spec Wilson of Laurel was runner-up with 221 and led the amateurs who played for $1,000 in merchandise prizes. Wilson had a two-over-par 74 for the 6,611-yard course which was swept by strong winds during the day.

Al Bange of Keesler Air Force Base came in third with 223 for second place honors in the amateur division. Roy Pope of Ocean Springs, the host pro, was next with a 78 for a 225 total and took $200 prize money.

Fifth place went to Davis Love, Hattiesburg pro, who turned in the only other par or better card today—a 71—for a total of 225 to take $150 prize money. Two Jackson amateurs, Maynard Craft and Jim Coleman, were next with 227. Coleman was co-medalist with Revolta with 71, then slipped to a 74 and 82 for the next two rounds.

Revolta, who began the tourney with a 71, turned in a par 72 yesterday and toured the course today in 35-35, one under par on each nine.

The 1938 state open will be played at the Vicksburg Country Club, which will set the date for the tourney. The State Amateur will be played at the Gulf Hills course. The tentative starting date was set for June 4.

Ruston notched 15 first downs to Bastrop's eight. Bastrop passed 12 times and completed five. The Beacats threw only one pass, that one going incomplete.

Undeclared Ruston Tags Bastrop, 20-0

BASTROP, La., (Special)—Ruston's Beacats, looking more like conference champions every Friday, rolled to their seventh victory of the season here last night with a 20-0 triumph over the Bastrop Rams.

It was the third defeat of the season for the Rams, who have won only over Neville, that being a 13-12 conquest earlier in the season.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (AP)—Charley Dresen remained out of sight but E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, a vice president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, today denied reports that Dresen has been hired by the Dodgers as a consultant. "There's nothing to it," said Bavasi, referring to a report that Dresen would give up his front office job with the Washington Senators and rejoin the Dodgers, whom he managed in 1951-52-53. "We haven't even talked to him. I talked to Cavin Griffith about Charley and Griffith said he's got a 2-year contract with the Senators."

"I have absolutely not talked to Dresen."

The Washington Star earlier today said Dresen was headed to the Dodgers.

Busso Spoils Gale Kerwin In 10-Rounder

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Favored Johnny Busso of New York spoiled substitute Gale Kerwin's big time boxing debut tonight by outpointing the Valley Stream, N. Y., lightweight in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Busso weighed 138½, Kerwin 139½.

Promoted from the semi-final after first Paolo Rosi and then Ernie (Sonny Boy) Williams were stricken by flu, Kerwin was leading until he ran into a flashing left and right to the chin that dropped him for a nine-count in the sixth round. The more experienced Busso, ninth ranking lightweight contender, then kept his rally going to win the unanimous decision.

Kerwin, a 23-year-old Ottawa native, was a 13 to 5 underdog and he had most of the thin crowd of about 1,000 rooting for him by his gallant stand. The wiry youngster took the play from his 23-year-old rival in the first half of the scrap with his thumping left hooks to the body and head. He had Johnny's body pink by the third round.

The victory was Busso's 31st against five defeats. Kerwin, a pro only 3½ years, suffered his fifth defeat. He has won 24.

National JC Not Handling Grid Dispute

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Oct. 25 (UP)—The executive secretary of the National Junior College Athletic Association said today he has no authority to act in a football game dispute involving junior colleges at San Angelo, Tex., and Trinidad, Colo.

Dr. Robert Bolerjack, of Benton Harbor College and NJCAA secretary said he got a telegram from San Angelo President Dr. R. M. Cavness asking for disqualification of the four officials who worked the game at Trinidad last Saturday night, and protesting their forfeiture of the game to Trinidad. Bolerjack said Cavness never sent a promised night letter on the matter.

Bolerjack said he received a letter from the Trinidad president promising cooperation in the investigation of the protest.

But Bolerjack said he informed the colleges his powers "do not include ruling on protests or officials at games arranged between two colleges."

"They'll have to settle it by themselves," he said. "But I'd like them to bring up the subject at our meeting at Hutchinson, Kan., next March to decide how such matters could be handled in the future."

The San Angelo coach ended the controversial game by calling his players off the field in the third quarter.

Chattanooga 20-0 Victim Of Southern

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 25 (AP)—Mississippi Southern capitalized on Chattanooga mistakes to score two touchdowns in the first eight minutes of play and went on to defeat the Moccasins 20-0 before 5,000 homecoming football fans tonight.

The Southerners scored their first touchdown with slightly more than four minutes gone on a 20-yard pass from quarterback George Sekul to halfback J. C. Arban. Ollie Yates converted.

The score had been set up when the Southerners recovered a Chattanooga fumble on the UC 25 on the first play of the game.

Southern tallied again with eight minutes gone on a 34-yard pass-run from Yates to halfback Lawrence Meeks. The visitors had intercepted a Johnny Green pass on the UC 48 to begin the drive.

The Southerners third six-point play came after the second half kickoff when fullback Buddy Supple plunged from the 3. Yates' conversion made the score 20-0.

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 20 (AP)—Like the guy who said all the great men were dead and he wasn't feeling so good himself, quite a few major college football teams that classed themselves at least on the rim of greatness weren't feeling so good today.

Michigan State, Naturally, the Spartans, rated No. 1 last week in the Associated Press poll, were rudely awakened by a Purdue team which was supposed to be only another rung in the Michigan State ladder to success. The Boilermakers won, 20-13.

Minnesota, for another, the sleeping giant of the north, figured by some critics as the best of the Big Ten, if not the nation, were slapped down by Illinois, 34-13. Oregon State, hitherto unbeaten, was stomped by UCLA, 26-7, and Arkansas found not only the eyes, but the feet and clutching hands, of Texas on it in losing, 17-0.

Oklahoma, which is like money in the bank for those who wish to wager a few bob on games, romped as expected. Duke still looks like a powerhouse, and Iowa has a pretty good seat up front in the Big Ten as a result of its victory over Wisconsin while Michigan State and Minnesota were getting their lumps.

Several other well-regarded teams had good scares. We were particularly interested in Navy, not only because we watched them Saturday, but because we saw Eddie Erdelatz had a sleeping giant there which at any moment might awaken to wreck everything in sight.

The middies played a rather hapless Georgia team in the Oyster Bowl here, a Shrine charity game with as fine trimmings in the way of music and floats and other dodads as we have seen in a long time.

The middies won, 27-14, which seems convincing enough, but when it is recalled Navy led at the quarter, 14-0, and at the half, 21-0, and then saw its margin cut to seven points early in the final period, it is apparent the victory wasn't achieved without travail.

Navy is difficult to figure. It is big enough, plays hard enough, gets expert quarterbacking and passing from Tom Forrestal and Pat Flood. But just when you begin to think it is rolling in an unstoppable manner, it blows a fuse somewhere along the way.

It may have been a slight case of cockiness Saturday, as when a team piles up a 21-0 halftime lead it is bound to get the idea it can do just about as it pleases the rest of the game.

Whatever the reason, the two teams might have switched uniforms between halves, as it seemed the Yankees and Braves switched uniforms in the recent World Series.

Anyway, the Georgia backs began to run like striped-tailed kangaroos, piling through the startled Middle defense as if the Navy line was soggy paper. The Bulldogs earned their two touchdowns, and might have done even better if Jimmy Orr, as slick and fast and elusive running back as we have seen in quite a spell, hadn't been injured.

To Navy's credit, it came back obviously when things began to look bad, but when it was all over it knew it had been in a ball game.

Navy has great potential, and if it eliminates the bugs before it meets Army in the game, the service classic should turn out to be just that. Army's victory over Hefty Pitt Saturday shows Coach Earl Black has a team that is going somewhere very rapidly, despite the detour in the Notre Dame game.

Neville Storms Tallulah In 24-To-0 Grid Victory

By SAM HANNA

Danny Neumann was colder than the temperature last night as the Tallulah Trojans ran into a hot Neville football team that turned in its best performance of the year for a 24-0 victory.

The Tiger forward wall took its cue from the reliable Willie Ragan and the speeding Gene Howard, who were both offensive sparkplugs and held Neumann to a gain of 44 yards.

Neville threw up an air-tight defense in fielding a team that evidently knew when and where Neumann was going. They had ample reason for doing so, for Dangerous Dan came to Monroe with 12 touchdowns notched on his belt.

It was Neville's fourth win of the season against two set backs. The loss was Tallulah's second, also its second against a bigger foe. The Class-A Trojans have won five.

Ragan's opening quarter field goal from the Tallulah 12 was the first of Neville's well-earned scoring. Howard scored in the second and third and Ragan returned to tally in the third also. He kicked all three extra points.

Meanwhile, Neumann was carrying the ball 10 times, netting 44 yards for a better than four-yard per carry average. His best effort was for 11 yards. Neville out-gained Tallulah, 256 to 107.

Howard's eight-yard run in the second quarter sent Neville to a 10-0 halftime lead as Tallulah barely had an opportunity to handle the ball during the time.

But Neville came back even home game until the finish.

Ragan went into the end zone from the one to make it 16-0 in the third quarter, kicked the conversion and it was 17-0.

Then Howard returned later in the period on an 18-yard gallop that ended the scoring in the ball game. Ragan converted.

It was Marvin Smart's crowd-pleasing pass catch that set up Neville's second touchdown when he grabbed the ball after it had been deflected from a Tiger receiver.

Smart was nailed at the Tallulah 30 and the Bengals ground away to the 17. Ragan carried to the five; Smart to the four and two plays later Willie carried it in.

Later in the period, Neville recovered a Tallulah fumble on the Trojan's 32 and Willie rambled for 22 to the 20. Then Howard carried it 18 for the score.

The Tigers entered their dressing room at halftime with a lead provided by Howard's spirited running. Neville gained 99 yards on the ground in the first half to the Trojan's 45. On five attempts, Neumann picked up 17.

Ragan set up his own field goal try in the first quarter when he broke loose for 15 yards from within Tallulah's 25. The Trojans refused to give up a touchdown, however, and so Willie's toe sent the ball through the uprights from the 12.

Then came three runs by Howard in the second quarter that enabled the Tigers to leave the field at halftime with a fairly comfortable lead.

Howard galloped for 17 yards midway the second quarter on a play that carried the Bengals into Trojan territory. However, a fierce tackle knocked the wind from Howard and he was removed from the game.

Neville kept hammering away, first driving to Tallulah's 35, then to their 24. At this point, Howard returned and weaved through the Tallulah defense for 12 — to the 12.

He sailed around right end from the eight, headed for the sidelines and pounded paydirt with a Trojan at his heels. Willie's toe did it again, and it was Neville's favorite, 10-0.

However, it was a tight Neville defense that kept Tallulah on its heels. The Trojans fumbled on their second play from scrimmage and the Neville field goal followed.

Later on, the Trojans hit the Neville forward wall for a first down, but had a pass intercepted to kill the threat. From this point to halftime, it was the Tigers' ball game.

Last week's Neville game was preceded by homecoming ceremonies. But last night, a Canada goose, apparently running a week late, mistook the early birds in the stadium for a gathering of ganders and tried its darndest to join the party.

The goose circled the field for five minutes and three times flew under the wires, cropped its wings to land, but was frightened away by would-be duck callers on the sidelines and in the stands.

Some questioned the goose's mission. Was it just a loyal fan following the Trojans from the sandbars of the Delta? Or was it a white, ill bird of fate come to roost atop the stadium like a vulture in wait of prey?

Regardless, the jeers from the stadium scared the fowl away. The contest followed.

Maxwell, Lichardus Lead Hesperia Golf

HESPERIA, Calif., Oct. 25 (UP)—Youthful Billy Maxwell of Odesa, Tex., former national amateur champion, and Babe Lichardus, Hillsdale, N. J., held the lead at the midway point today in the $15,000 Hesperia Open with 134s, finishing 10 strokes under par.

The pair not only were tied in their 36-hole score but they shot identical rounds of 34-33—67 on today's round after having both shot 67s Thursday when they were in a three-way tie for second one stroke behind Frank Boynton of Orlando, Fla.

Tied for second at the end of the second round with 136 were the pre-tournament favorites, swarthy Doug Ford of Mohopac, N. Y., who has won four tournaments this year, and young Doug Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., both of whom shot 68s today to go with the same scores of Thursday.

Ford was out in 37, one over par, but he charged home with a five under par 31, best nine-hole score of the tournament. He shot an eagle three on the 12th hole and had three birdies.

Tied at 137 were Gene Litter, El Cajon, Calif., and J. C. Goosie, Knoxville, Tenn. Litter shot a 69 today while Goosie shot a 67 which tied the day's best effort.

Lichardus, a slender 29-year-old pro whose best previous effort was a tie for seventh at Houston, was playing flawless golf for two days during which he has not been over par on any hole. Maxwell played less steadily but more sensationally. He had three bogies but overcame these with five birdies and an eagle three on the par five eighth hole.

Clifford Ann Cops Her 3rd State Crown

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Eighteen-year-old Clifford Ann Creed won the Louisiana women's state golf title today for the third straight year.

The Opelousas girl who won the women's Tam O'Shaner, "World" and Southern Amateur championships earlier this year, closed her match for the fourth straight day on the 13th to beat Mrs. A. T. Higgins Jr., of New Orleans 6 and 5.

Miss Creed, a sophomore at Lamar Tech in Beaumont, Tex., was two up at the end of the morning 18-hole round of the championship finals. Three up after 27, she won the 28th, halved the 29th and took the 30th and 31st, the latter the 13th hole of the afternoon round.

Rebs Favored By 8 Points Over Porkers

MEMPHIS, Oct. 25 (AP)—Unbeaten Mississippi is a solid eight points favorite over once-beaten Arkansas in their interconference game tomorrow.

But nobody who has followed the 49-year-old series between the two teams is counting Arkansas out. In at least half of the 20-game series, the underdog has won.

Mississippi was also an eight point favorite last year when Arkansas came out on top 14-0.

The weatherman predicts cloudy crisp weather tomorrow with no rain. Since both teams are fast, with a smoothly geared T-offense, scoring should be the order of the day. A capacity crowd of about 30,000 is expected at Crump Stadium for the 2 p.m. (CST) kickoff.

Mississippi's offense is built around its senior quarterback, Ray Brown, the Southeastern Conference total offense leader with 590 yards.

Arkansas has two quarterbacks just as capable, seniors George Walker and Don Christian.

Ole Miss won its first five games with comparative ease, beating Trinity of Texas 44-0, Kentucky 15-0, Hardin-Simmons 34-7, Vanderbilt 28-0, and Tulane 50-0.

Arkansas no doubt has played the tougher schedule so far this season and this could work to the Razorbacks' advantage tomorrow. They beat Oklahoma State 12-0, Tulsa 41-14, Texas Christian 20-7, Baylor 20-17, before losing to Texas last week 17-0.

The Razorbacks substitute in units, with the second about as effective as the first. While Ole Miss is equally as deep in the backfield, its second line doesn't have the experience that Arkansas has.

FIRST 1-AAA WIN

West Monroe Shuts Out Ouachita's Lions, 27-0

West Monroe's Rebels handed Ouachita its fifth loss and first shutout of the season with a 27-0 triumph in the two schools' annual grid classic last night at Brown Stadium.

Held to one touchdown in the first half, West Monroe marched 97 yards for a third quarter score and intercepted two passes to set their first district 1-AAA.

Ouachita, a high-scoring though losing ball team all year, made only one scoring threat during the game, a third period march to the three yard line. The Rebels took over there and went for their second touchdown. The Lions obviously missed ace halfback Eddie McGowan. McGowan suffered an ankle injury last week against Fair Park and appeared only in last night's contest. First string tackle Kenneth Ward missed the entire game for Bob Ellen's Lions.

It's highly doubtful that a healthy McGowan or Ward would have made much difference although Ouachita might have managed a touchdown. Neither team did much in the first half except for the Rebel touchdown but the second half was all West Monroe after the opening drive by Ouachita. Quarterback Johnny Huntsman scored the first touchdown of the night and kicked three extra points to lead the scoring for the Rebels and passed for the final touchdown to Robert Perkins in the last minute of the game.

Halfback Jerry Stovall went 16 yards for the second score of the night in the third quarter and fullback Mickey Bass bulled over from the one for the third touchdown.

The winners are now batting .500 in conference play with one win and one defeat, the loss to Byrd, 14-0. Ouachita has loop losses to Fair Park and West Monroe and has one more conference game to play.

West Monroe started their first scoring drive on the last play of the first quarter when Jerry Stovall returned a Rex Carter punt to the Rebel 42. West Monroe went for the score in six plays with a Huntsman pass to Hudson, a couple of nice runs by Huntsman and Ford putting the ball on the nine before Huntsman kept and with the aid of some fine faking by himself and the rest of the backfield, went over. He booted the point after and it was 7-0.

Bob Ellen's Ouachita team received the opening kickoff of the second half and Carter reeled off three consecutive completed passes to end Billy Roach to put the ball on the 15. One of these, the first one, was good for 33 yards.

An offside penalty advanced the Lions further to the 9 and rushes by Housley and Mahoney put them on the three. Carter missed on two passes, the last one in the end zone to John Talley. Talley caught the ball but was hit quickly and dropped it for an incomplete that killed the Lions' chances to miss the shutout.

West Monroe took over at the three and went all the way for their second score with short gains by Stovall, Bass and Ford eating up the yards along with a 20 yard gallop by fullback Bass and 26-yard pass from Huntsman on the 16. Stovall went wide around left from that spot for the touchdown and Huntsman made it 14-0.

After an interception by Roach stopped a Rebel drive inside the Ouachita five in the fourth quarter, the Lions moved to their own 34 on the passing of Carter before Huntsman stole a Lion aerial, at the 39 and returned to the 24. Ford, Dorris and Perkins moved the piskin to the one from where Bass blasted over. Huntsman missed the kick this time and it was 20-0.

With less than a minute to go, Joe Ford, back in action after a two week layoff, picked off another Carter toss at the Lion 39 and sped to the 23. On the next play Huntsman spotted Perkins in the end zone and hit him for the final touchdown. He converted and it was 27-0.

FLU HITS 49ERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (UP) — The flu hit the camp of the San Francisco Forty Niners today — but team physician Dr. James O'Connor said that the attacks were mild and that all would be ready to play on Sunday. Hit by the bug was halfback Hugh McElhenny, flanker back R. C. Owens, guard Ted Connolly, linebacker Charley Powell, halfback Joe Arenas and defensive back Val Joe Walker.

BIG CURCI NIGHT

Miami Runs Wild Over Kansas, 48-7

By FRANK EDGE, JR. — On the third play, Wally Strauch, a 142-pound master faker with a football, broke the back of a Kansas team with three quick touchdowns tonight that paved the way for a 49-6 Miami victory before 33,200 fans in the Orange Bowl.

Curci, working the quarterback option play like he invented it, ran for two touchdowns and passed for another that came only 127 seconds before the first half gun sounded.

Miami, scoring more points tonight than it posted in four previous ball games, poured across three touchdowns in the second period, two in the third and two in the fourth.

A back-firing gamble, partially blocked punt and a penalty combined to give Kansas first blood in the opening quarter.

Miami halfback Joe Plevel let Jim Letcavits punt sail over his head, thinking it would go into the end zone. Instead the ball bounced out crazily on the Miami two.

The Jayhawkers line then partially blocked Harry Diederich's attempt to punt and Kansas got the ball on the Miami three after officials stepped off a 15-yard penalty.

Curci then took over to engineer touchdowns drives of 48 and 46 yards. The diminutive quarterback ran six yards for his first score, then hit three straight passes in 48 seconds for the second one.

The touchdown throw from seven yards out was caught by Terry Stewart.

The officials marred the game by stepping off nine penalties for a total of 95 yards against Miami and 13 penalties for 107 yards against Kansas.

Last year's winner, Barbizon, was a supplementary nomination, taking a net of $168,430 from a gross purse of $319,210. In 1955, Prince John hailed in $157,918 from a total purse of $282,270. These two renewals of the Garden

High School Grid Results

EASTON, 40-0
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25 (UP) — Warren Easton pushed across two touchdowns in the first half tonight and coasted to a 40-0 Orleans Public School district triple-A football victory over McDonough.

Bill Hatchett went over from the three for the first and final touchdowns, while Bobby Terrill, Bobby Rappold, Roger Gumbard and Ferd Clark got one score each. Rappold scored on a 56-yard pass play from Terrill for the longest play. Terrill converted four times.

Easton out-distanced the losers 244-43 in rushing yardage and 97-11 in passing yardage and held a 16-2 edge in first downs.

LAGRANGE, 7-0
LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 25 (UP) — LaGrange remained in contention for the school district triple-A football crown tonight by beating Lake Charles' defending champion 7-0.

The touchdown came in the third period on a 48-yard drive that ended with fullback Don Spano cracking over from the two. Gerald Smith's conversion was good.

It was the first district loss for Lake Charles since 1932. LaGrange lost its first key district game against Bolton, which now is undisputed district leader but has not played Lake Charles.

second quarter on a quarterback sneak from five yards out. Billy Ray Newton tallied the fourth Bruin marker on a punt run-back of 46 yards.

Francis Copes punched over from the second for the final Bear touchdown.

Crowley's touchdown was made in the closing minutes of the game when Bobby Caldwell took a punt on his own 35 and handed to J. T. Johnson who ran 65 yards for the score. Caldwell kicked the extra point.

J-H TRIUMPHS
JONESBORO, La. (Special) — Jonesboro-Hodge rallied for two touchdowns in the first and third quarters here last night to defeat Winnfield, 28-7.

Jitterbuggin' Dennis Mann rammed for three touchdowns, twice in the first and once in the third, to pace the home club in the battle of the Tigers.

He went five yards for his first, in the first, and 20 yards for his second, again in the first. Later in the third period, the hard running fullback plunged over from the one.

Winnfield's lone touchdown came in the closing seconds of the game when Leonard Melton plunged over from the five. John Harrington kicked the extra point.

Morris Douglas, however, turned in the finest run of the night when he took the ball on his own 25 in the third period and raced 75 yards for the touchdown. Troy Bryant kicked all four extra points for Jonesboro-Hodge.

Jonesboro-Hodge rushed for 308 yards and rolled up nine first downs. Winnfield was able to gain but 106 yards and enjoyed only six first downs.

JENA BEATEN
JENA, La. (Special) — Springfield's Lumberjacks lumbered into the pine country last night to whittle down Jena's Giants, 6-0.

Ralph Malone went 25 yards around right end in the second quarter for the lone touchdown of the ball game. It was homecoming for Jena, but a sad one at that, for the defeat went down as the Giants' sixth of the season.

Nevertheless, Jena had three scoring opportunities, but could never cash in. Springfield never threatened except when Malone dashed for the score.

The Giants, on the other hand, got down to the Springfield 10 in the first quarter, to the 20 in the third and had four downs to go from the Lumberjack seven in the finals.

EAGLES, 25-20
COLUMBIA, La. (Special) — Columbia's Crimson Tide jumped to a 13-0 first quarter lead to please a homecoming crowd here last night, but Holly Ridge finished strong to win, 25-20.

Columbia had the Eagles 20-12 at halftime, but Holly Ridge roared back in the third quarter with two touchdowns and a conversion while the Crimson Tide was being held scoreless.

Bubba Henry scored twice for Columbia while Marvin McManus and Winston Hammond were doing the same for the visiting Eagles.

Henry's first touchdown came after Butchie Darden had started the Columbia scoring with a seven-yard run into the end zone to open the first quarter.

Henry ran the point over behind Darden and minutes later returned to score from the five. In the second quarter, he scored on a 35-yard run and the point was good by Neal Nethery.

That was all of the scoring for Columbia, however.

McManus scored twice in the second quarter, once from the three, once from the five. Hammond's third period touchdowns came from the 15 and 31 respectively. McManus kicked one extra point.

In homecoming ceremonies before approximately 1200 fans, Miss Phyllis Ann Winters was crowned queen. She is a sophomore.

FERRIDAY, 14-13
LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — Ferriday's Bulldogs, once a fright on any class - A schedule, won its first conference game of the season here last night over Lake Providence, 14-13.

The Bulldogs ran into a stubborn Panther eleven that deadlocked the score at 7-all at halftime. The Panthers came from behind to score again in the third and missed a golden opportunity to score in the finals for the victory.

However, it was a quirk of fate that held Ferriday was of the Bulldogs ground out 228 yards while holding the Panthers to a mere 46.

It was Ferriday's third win of the season against a tie and one loss. Lake Providence has won five. Last night's loss was the Panther's third.

Lake Providence jumped out in front in the first quarter when Ferriday fumbled on their own 18 and the Panthers recovered. A penalty pulled the Bulldogs back to the three and Ed Edmondson went into the end zone for Lake Providence.

Dick Muirhead, who later in the game was to be stopped on a telling plunge, dove in for the extra point.

The Bulldogs knotted the score on a one-yard yard by Tony Brocato after Ferriday had recovered a Lake Providence fumble there.

Butch Bateman converted. Ferriday grabbed the lead in the third period when Gerald Day passed 22 yards to Bateman for the touchdown. Bateman again converted.

Lake Providence knocked back in the same period when Edmondson gathered in a kick on his own 10 and behind fine blocking went all the way for the score.

Muirhead was then stopped on the extra point plunge and Ferriday held on for the victory. The Panthers got into Ferriday territory in the finals, but couldn't go over.

Charles Simmons scored in the

MANGHAM, 45-6
MANGHAM, La. (Special) — The Mangham High School Dragons, looking more like the team that swept to the state Class B championship a year ago, trounced the Wisner Bulldogs, 45-6, here last night with Coach Armed Matthews letting his reserves play at least half the game.

Billy Lowery, Mangham's leading scorer, romped for three more touchdowns last night to run his season's production to 78 points.

Bobby Howington scooted for Wisner's only touchdown on a 60-yard gallop through the middle in the second quarter, but the Dragons were ahead 33-6 at the half with no doubt about which was the superior team.

"If we can just look this good against LaSalle next week we'll be all right," commented Coach Matthews after it was over.

Edgar Johns, all-state tackle last year, ran at fullback for Mangham last night, scoring one touchdown and three extra points. His brother, Sylvester, also added one touchdown, and James "Imp" Hendrix scored twice for the Dragons.

FIRST 1-AAA WIN

West Monroe Shuts Out Ouachita's Lions, 27-0

West Monroe's Rebels handed Ouachita its fifth loss and first shutout of the season with a 27-0 triumph in the two schools' annual grid classic last night at Brown Stadium.

Held to one touchdown in the first half, West Monroe marched 97 yards for a third quarter score and intercepted two passes to set their first district 1-AAA.

Ouachita, a high-scoring though losing team all year, made only one scoring threat during the game, a third period march to the three yard line. The Rebels took over there and went for their second touchdown. The Lions obviously missed ace halfback Edie McGowan. McGowan suffered an ankle injury last week against Fair Park and appeared only in last night's contest. First string tackle Kenneth Ward missed the entire game for Bob Ellen's Lions.

It's highly doubtful that a healthy McGowan or Ward would have made much difference although Ouachita might have managed a touchdown. Neither team did much in the first half except for the Rebel touchdown but the second half was all West Monroe after the opening drive by Ouachita. Quarterback Johnny Huntsman scored the first touchdown of the night and kicked three extra points to lead the scoring for the Rebels and passed for the final touchdown to Robert Perkins in the last minute of the game.

Halfback Jerry Stovall went 16 yards for the second score of the night in the third quarter and fullback Mickey Bass bulled over from the one for the third touchdown.

The winners are now batting .500 in conference play with one win and one defeat, the loss to Byrd, 14-0. Ouachita has loop losses to Fair Park and West Monroe and has one more conference game to play.

West Monroe started their first scoring drive on the last play of the first quarter when Jerry Stovall returned a Rex Carter punt to the Rebel 42. West Monroe went for the score in six plays with a Huntsman pass to Hudson, a couple of nice runs by Huntsman and Ford putting the ball on the nine before Huntsman kept and with the aid of some fine faking by himself and the rest of the backfield, went over. He booted the point after and it was 7-0.

Bob Ellen's Ouachita team received the opening kickoff of the second half and Carter reeled off three consecutive completed passes to end Billy Roach to put the Rebels on the 16. One of these tosses, the first one, was good for 33 yards.

An offside penalty advanced the Lions further to the 9 and rushes by Housley and Mahoney put them on the three. Carter missed on two passes, the last one in the end zone to John Talley. Talley caught the ball but was hit quickly and dropped it for an incomplete that killed the Lions' chances to miss the shutout.

West Monroe took over at the three and went all the way for their second score with short gains by Stovall, Bass and Ford eating up the yards along with a 29 yard gallop by fullback Bass and 26-yard pass from Huntsman on the 16. Stovall went wide around left from that spot for the touchdown and Huntsman made it 14-0.

After an interception by Roach stopped a Rebel drive inside the Ouachita five in the fourth quarter, the Lions moved to their own 34 on the passing of Carter before Huntsman stole a Lion aerial at the 39 and returned to the 24. Ford, Dorris and Perkins moved the pigskin to the one from where Bass blasted over. Huntsman missed the kick this time and it was 20-0.

With less than a minute to go, Joe Ford, back in action after a two week layoff, picked off another Carter toss at the Lion 35 and soled to the 23. On the next play Huntsman spotted Perkins in the end zone and hit him for the final touchdown. He converted and it was 27-0.

The lineup: Ouachita Ends — Roach, Logan, Talley; Tackles — N. Pruitt, Moore, C. Pruitt; Guards — Carlett, Kirtley, Fletcher; Center — Carter, Kimball; Backs — Mahoney, Housley, Perry, Barker, Simmons, Warlick, Cromwell, Bates. West Monroe Ends — Hudson, Farmer, Autrey, Lewis; Tackles — Skipper, Bell, Watts, Cannon; Guards — J. ## FLU HITS 49'ERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (UP) — The flu hit the camp of the San Francisco Forty Niners today — but team physician Dr. James O'Connor said that the attacks were mild and that all would be ready to play on Sunday. Hit by the bug were halfback Hugh McElhenny, flanker back R. C. Owens, guard Ted Connolly, linebacker Charley Powell, halfback Joe Arenas and defensive back Val Joe Walker.

MRS. ALLEN WINS

GRIFFIN, Ga., Oct. 25 (UP) — Mrs. A. H. Allen of Albany, Ga., who shaved six strokes off her game with the help of a mid-tournament golf lesson, captured the Eleanor Keeler Tournament today with a 54-hole of 250.

BIG CURCI NIGHT

Miami Runs Wild Over Kansas, 48-7

By FRANK EDGE, JR.

MIAMI, Oct. 25 (UP) — Fran Curci, a 142-pound master faker with a football, broke the back of a Kansas team with three quick touchdowns tonight that paved the way for a 48-7 Miami victory before 33,200 fans in the Orange Bowl.

Curci, working the quarterback option play like he invented it, ran for two touchdowns and passed for another that came only 127 seconds before the first half gun sounded.

Miami, scoring more points tonight than it posted in four previous ball games, poured across three touchdowns in the second period, two in the third and two in the fourth.

A back-firing gamble, partially blocked punt and a penalty combined to give Kansas first blood in the opening quarter.

Miami halfback Joe Plevel let Jim Letcavits punt sail over his head, thinking it would go into the end zone. Instead the ball bounded out crazily on the Miami two.

The Jayhawkers line then partially blocked Harry Diederich's attempt to punt and Kansas got the ball on the Miami three after officials stepped off a 15-yard penalty.

GARDEN STATE STAKES

Richest Horse Race Draws 13 Starters

CAMDEN, N.J., Oct. 25 (UP) — The $277,150 Garden State Stakes drew a field of 13 today for Saturday's running of the world's richest race with Jewel's Reward from the Maine Chance Farm, favored to win the fabulous purse.

Also named for the mile and one-sixteenth classic, at a cost of $1,000 each, were: Wheatley Stable's Misty Flight, Claiborne Farm's Nadir, the George Lewis Stable entry of Music Man Fox and Martins Rullah, Foxcatcher Farm's Rose Trellis, R. Douglas Prewitt Jr.'s Terra Firma, Brookfield Farm's Isendu, Christopher T. Cheney's Yemen, Mrs. William E. Snell's My Warrior, Mrs. Anna Cannuli's Chance It Tony, Open Nine Stable's Ambitwixt, and Colonial Farm's Fairfield.

The owners of the two-year-olds shooting for the rich purse must pay an additional $1,000 actually to start their young horses. If each accepts the challenge, the winner's net share of the third richest purse ever posted, will total $155,049.

If the fanatic spoils fall to a late nomination—Jewel's Reward, Rose Trellis, Yemen or Terra Firma, who were made supplementary entries at $10,000 each last Monday—the winner will net "only" $145,434.

Last year's winner, Barbizon, was a supplementary nomination, taking a net of $168,430 from a gross purse of $319,210. In 1955, Prince John hauled in $157,918 from a total purse of $282,270. These two renewals of the Garden

State are the only races ever run worth more than the current edition of the "gold rush."

Second place also is worth taking as are third and fourth. The place horse gets $55,430 with $36,572 to third and $13,857 to fourth.

On the third play, Wally Strauch knifed over tackle from the one, but missed the extra point kick.

The officials, who threw four men out of the game, three of them from Kansas, then practically gave Miami its first score, which fullback Bill Sandie collected with a one-yard plunge.

Curci then took over to engineer touchdown drives of 48 and 46 yards. The diminutive quarterback ran six yards for his first score, then hit three straight passes in 48 seconds for the second one.

The touchdown throw from seven yards out was caught by Terry Stewart.

The officials marred the game by stepping off nine penalties for a total of 95 yards against Miami and 13 penalties for 107 yards against Kansas.

Score by periods: 0 21 13 14—48 Miami; 6 0 0 0—6 Kansas.

Miami scoring: Touchdowns, Sandie (1, plunge); Curci (2, pass run; 2, run); Stewart (7, pass run; Curci); Gutman (1, sneak); Mitchell (2, 7 run; 1, plunge); Conversions: Varone 2, Dangel 4.

Kansas scoring: Touchdown, Strauch (1, run).

Dressen went to Washington as a manager three years ago. He was replaced last season by Harry (Cookie) Lavagetto, Club directors Dressen assistant to president Griffith, but Dressen said tonight:

"I just didn't fit in. The Senators have a different setup than any other club. I had hoped to work more with the farm system, but I found myself mostly staying on the west coast observing Pacific coast league teams."

"I think the main reason for my quitting the Senators is that I'd like a more active job in baseball, on the field if possible."

1ST TITLE DEFENSE

Istrouma In 62-14 Defeat Of Catholic

BATON ROUGE, Oct. 25 (UP) — Istrouma opened defense of its district 3-AAA title with a resounding 62-14 victory over Catholic High tonight.

The combined total of 76 points was the greatest number of points ever recorded in a city series game here.

Quarterback Lynn Amedee passed for four touchdowns with Jackie Cox taking two of them, scoring aeriels and Gene Burlon and Don McCollister one each. Cox also caught a scoring toss from Jackie Webb, sub quarterback, for Istrouma's ninth and final score with his second left.

Istrouma's other touchdowns were scored by fullback Don Smith, on runs of seven and nine yards, Steve Ward on a two-yard plunge and Leo Valentin on a one-yard buck. Smith converted five times for

ISLANDERS, 14-0
OLLA, La. (Special)—Sicily Island scored in the first and final stanzas here last night to down the LaSalle Tigers, 14-0.

Sicily Island's first touchdown was set up when tailback Dean Wiggins threw a 35-yard pass to William Patton, putting the ball on LaSalle's one.

Wiggins went around right end for the score. He also converted. Wiggins returned to the lime-light in the last quarter when he went off left tackle for 60 yards and the touchdown. He converted again.

Bob Allbritton was outstanding for LaSalle, but it was a weak Tiger defense that failed to stop the hard running Wiggins.

LAFAYETTE FALLS
NEW IBERIA, La., Oct. 25 (UP)—Quarterback Wayne Waguespack flipped two touchdowns passes in the third period tonight as double-A New Iberia beat triple-A Lafayette 14-7.

Waguespack hit Ken Boutte on a 66-yard play and Danny Delahoussaye on a 35-yard play. Billy Dore got both conversions.

Billy Hargett scored for Lafayette on a one-yard buck in the first period, with Robert May converting.

NATCHEZ EASY
NATCHEZ, Miss., Oct. 25 (UP)—Quarterback Perry Lee Dunn scored twice and passed for another touchdown tonight in leading Natchez to a 27-0 Big Eight Conference victory over Laurel.

Dunn scored in the first period on a six-yard sweep and in the third on a three-yard run. He passed six to end Mike Morgan in the third. The fourth period tally was on a two-yard buck by fullback Jerry Kemerling.

Billy Priestner got three conversions. Laurel got to the 20 once and the 15 once in its deepest pushes, losing the ball both time on downs.

VICKSBURG TIED
VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 25 (UP)—Underdog Vicksburg and undefeated Meridian swapped second half touchdowns tonight as they fought to a surprising 7-7 Big Eight Conference football tie.

Meridian scored in the third on a 46-yard jump by fullback Billy Horn. Halfback Paul Walker converted. Vicksburg came back in the fourth to score on a 79-yard march. Quarterback G. N. Robinson sneaked the final yard and converted.

Vicksburg had fumbled on the Meridian one in the first quarter and the final whistle killed a Meridian scoring chance on the Vicksburg three. The Meridian drive was set up by a bad snap from center on a fourth down Vicksburg punt attempt.

SIXTH FOR PELS
The Pelicans of Southside High notched their sixth victory in seven games this season when they defeated Arkansas Training School, 40-7, at Pine Bluff, Ark., Thursday night.

David Sullivan turned in the longest runs of the night, romps of 60 and 65 yards, for two Pelican touchdowns. Nippy Aucoin raced 55 yards for another. Single Pel touchdowns also were scored by John Cambrage, Thomas Barber, and Ambrose Daley.

Cassagne scored on a pass from Bergeron; Barber went over with a pass from Sullivan, and Daley scored on an off-tackle slant. Daley also added four extra points to the Southside cause.

JENNINGS, 13-0
CROWLEY, La., Oct. 25 (UP)—Quarterback John Wayne Hudson guided triple-A Jennings to a 13-0 football victory over double-A Crowley tonight, passing for one tally and scoring once.

A 56-yard pass play from Hudson to halfback Mickey Buller brought a second period tally and Hudson went over on a keeper for the fourth quarter score. He converted after the second.

DELHI 34, CROWVILLE 7
DELHI, La. (Special)—With halfback Bobby Leach scoring two touchdowns and four extra points, the Delhi Bears swamped Crowville 34-7 at Delhi last night.

This leaves Delhi undefeated in Class B conference play. It was not a conference game for Crowley.

Leach made his first touchdown early in the opening quarter on a 68-yard scamper and scored his second for the Bruins on a 15-yard sweep in the third stanza.

Charles Simmons scored in the second quarter on a quarterback sneak from five yards out. Billy Ray Newton tallied the fourth Bruin marker on a punt run-back of 46 yards.

Francis Copes punched over from the second for the final Bear touchdown.

Crowville's touchdown was made in the closing minutes of the game when Bobby Caldwell took a punt on his own 35 and handed to J. T. Johnson who ran 65 yards for the score. Caldwell kicked the extra point.

J-H TRIUMPHS
JONESBORO, La. (Special)—Jonesboro-Hodge rallied for two touchdowns in the first and third quarters here last night to defeat Winnfield, 28-7.

Jitterbugging Dennis Mann rambled for three touchdowns, twice in the first and once in the third, to pace the home club in the battle of the Tigers.

He went five yards for his first, in the first, and 20 yards for his second, again in the first. Later in the third period, the hard running fullback plunged over from the one.

Winnfield's lone touchdown came in the closing seconds of the game when Leonard Melton plunged over from the five. John Harrington kicked the extra point.

Morris Douglas, however, turned in the finest run of the night when he took the ball on his own 25 in the third period and raced 75 yards for the touchdown. Troy Bryant kicked all four extra points for Jonesboro-Hodge.

Jonesboro-Hodge rushed for 308 yards and rolled up nine first downs. Winnfield was able to gain but 106 yards and enjoyed only six first downs.

JENA, La. (Special)—Springhill's Lumberjacks lumbered into the pine county last night to whitelie down Jena's Giants, 6-0.

Ralph Malone went 25 yards around right end in the second quarter for the lone touchdown of the ball game. It was homecoming for Jena, but a sad one at that, for the defeat went down as the Giants' sixth of the season.

Nevertheless, Jena had three scoring opportunities, but could never cash in. Springhill never threatened except when Malone dashed for the score.

The Giants, on the other hand, got down to the Springhill 10 in the first quarter, to the 20 in the third and had four downs to go from the Lumberjack seven in the finals.

EAGLES, 25-20
COLUMBIA, La. (Special)—Columbia's Crimson Tide jumped to a 13-0 first quarter lead to please a homecoming crowd here last night, but Holly Ridge finished strong to win, 25-20.

Columbia had the Eagles 20-12 at halftime but Holly Ridge roared back in the third quarter with two touchdowns and a conversion while the Crimson Tide was being held scoreless.

Bubba Henry scored twice for Columbia while Marvin McManus and Winston Hammond were doing the same for the visiting Eagles. Henry's first touchdown came after Butchie Darden had started the Columbia scoring with a seven-yard run into the end zone to open the first quarter.

Henry ran the point over behind Darden and minutes later returned to score from the five. In the second quarter, he scored on a 35-yard run and the point was good by Neal Nethery.

That was all of the scoring for Columbia, however.

McManus scored twice in the second quarter, once from the three, once from the five. Hammond's third period touchdowns came from the 15 and 31 respectively. McManus kicked one extra point.

In homecoming ceremonies before approximately 1200 fans, Miss Phyllis Ann Winters was crowned queen. She is a sophomore.

FERRIDAY, 14-13
LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special)—Ferriday's Bulldogs, once a fright on any class - A schedule, won its first conference game of the season here last night over Lake Providence, 14-13.

The Bulldogs ran into a stubborn Panther eleven that deadlocked the score at 7-all at halftime. The Panthers came from behind to score again in the third and missed a golden opportunity to score in the finals for the victory.

However, it was a quirk of fate that held Ferriday down, for the Bulldogs ground out 228 yards while holding the Panthers to a mere 46.

It was Ferriday's third win of the season against a tie and one loss. Lake Providence has won five. Last night's loss was the Panther's third.

Lake Providence jumped out in front in the first quarter when Ferriday fumbled on their own 18 and the Panthers recovered. A penalty pulled the Bulldogs back to the three and Ed Edmondson went into the end zone for Lake Providence.

Dick Muirhead, who later in the game was to be stopped on a tale telling plunge, dove in for the extra point.

The Bulldogs knotted the score on a one-yard buck by Tony Brocato after Ferriday had recovered a Lake Providence fumble there.

Butch Bateman converted. Ferriday grabbed the lead in the third period when Gerald Day passed 22 yards to Bateman for the touchdown. Bateman again converted.

Lake Providence knocked back in the same period when Edmondson gathered in a kick on his own 10 and behind fine blocking went all the way for the score.

Muirhead was then stopped on the extra point plunge and Ferriday held on for the victory. The Panthers got into Ferriday territory in the finals, but couldn't go over.

LAGRANGE, 7-0

LAKE CHARLES, La., Oct. 25 (UP)—LaGrange remained in contention for the southwest district triple-A football crown tonight by beating Lake Charles' defending champion 7-0.

The touchdown came in the third period on a 48-yard drive that ended with fullback Don Spano cracking over from the two. Gerald Smith's conversion was good.

It was the first district loss for Lake Charles since 1952. LaGrange lost its first key district game against Bolton, which now is undisputed district leader but has not played Lake Charles.

ISLANDERS, 14-0

OLLA, La. (Special)—Sicily Island scored in the first and final stanzas here last night to down the LaSalle Tigers, 14-0.

Wiggins went around right end for the score. He also converted. Wiggins returned to the lime-light in the last quarter when he went off left tackle for 60 yards and the touchdown. He converted again.

A look at current football statistics might lead to the belief that Colorado's team, long a difficult rival for Oklahoma, is the nation's No. 1 college team and as favorite to win by about four touchdowns.

Three of their last four meetings, some of the others could turn out to be close and more exciting than the 1957 Sooner-Buffalo clash. Colorado is listed as the nation's leading team in rushing and third in total offense. Halfback Bob Stransky also is No. 1 in individual rushing with an imposing 635-yard total. Oklahoma, usually the offense leader, is down in 10th place and holds the same rating in total defense.

Colorado has attained this rating while piling up 148 points against five opponents and yielding 93. Most of the Bufs' opponents appear weaker than the four which Oklahoma has outscored 134-21. The one common rival, Kansas edged Colorado 35-24 but look a 7-0 beating in Oklahoma last week with the Sooners' second unit doing most of the damage.

11 Tulane Gridders In Last Home Scrap

NEW ORLEANS (Special) — Eleven members of the Tulane grid team will play their final game before a home crowd when the Greenies take on Georgia Tech here tonight at 9 o'clock in the annual homecoming clash.

The group includes three ends, one tackle, two guards, one center, one quarterback, two halfbacks and one fullback. Seven of them have had starting roles this season and the others have played in early games. As a group they have earned 18 letters, with one three-year letter winner and seven two-year men on the list.

Gene Newton, the Greenies veteran quarterback from Shreveport, halfback Tommy Warner and end Bill Wilson have seen the most service. Warner, a 22-year-old New Orleans native, is one of the three-year lettermen now playing in the Southeastern Conference. Tommy broke in as a freshman against the Citadel in 1953 scoring on a 58-yard run. One of his most standout performances was in the 1955 Auburn game, when he stopped a late Plainsmen threat by intercepting a pass and returning it for 87 yards and the clinching TD. His 89-yard punt return for a tally against Virginia Tech this season tied the previous best punt return turned in by a Tulane player.

Pitt's Coach Soothes Army Holding Talk

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25 (UP)—Capt. Tom Hamilton, University Pittsburgh athletic director, chastised one of his coaches today for saying Army and Oklahoma football players practiced "holding" infractions.

"There has been too much said already as an aftermath of an off-the-cuff remark by one of our coaches concerning the Army game," he declared. "It should be made clear that any implied criticism did not represent the feeling of the University of Pittsburgh family."

Hamilton's statement was prompted by a remark of end coach Ernie Heffeler following last Saturday's 29-13 loss to Army.

"They do a thing up there at Army that Oklahoma does—and that's holding," Heffeler said. "The way they do it you have to practice it. It's tough enough to win a game as it is but when you have to battle a thing like that, it's tougher."

Heffeler was on a scouting mission last Saturday but viewed Pitt-Army moves.

Hamilton said this year's Army team was one of the finest he has ever seen. He said it "outplayed us and well deserved its decisive victory."

The Pitt official said he had only the highest regard for Army coach Earl (Red) Blaik and coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma.

"Having coached against Earl Blaik over the years and counting him a personal friend, I have the highest regard for him on and off the field," Hamilton said.

"I feel exactly the same toward my old shipmate, Bud Wilkinson, and personally regret any reflections conjured up on the basis of an ill-conceived remark by a normal good sportsman, Ernie Heffeler, who did not witness the game."

2 Key Players Cut Off North Carolina Squad

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 25 (UP)—Coach Jim Tatum dismissed two key players, quarterback Dave Reed and tackle Leo Russavage, and Bernie Donatelli, a junior guard from his University of North Carolina football squad today for breaking training rules.

The action came on the eve of Saturday's North Carolina-Wake Forest game at Winston-Salem, N. C.

Tatum did not divulge the nature of the rules infractions, but said the incident occurred Thursday night.

SEC GAME OF WEEK

LSU, Florida Offer High-Scoring Game

BATON ROUGE, La. (Special)—Louisiana State's Tigers, battered physically but still unbeaten in Southeastern Conference play, take on Florida's swift-striking Gators in Gainesville, Fla., this afternoon in the SEC's feature game.

Kickoff time for Florida's homecoming game is set for 1:30 p.m. (CST). The game is rated as a toss-up.

L. S. U., the South's biggest surprise this fall, has won four in a row since an opening game loss and is tied for the S. E. C. lead with Auburn and Ole Miss. Florida, rated as a top contender for league honors, has a 1-1 S.E.C. mark after last week's upset by Mississippi State.

An L. S. U. squad of 37 players went by plane to Gainesville Friday for the battle.

From the talent of both teams, the game should be high scoring and exciting. Each team has a splendid backfield and each has averaged three touchdowns per game against first class opposition.

Leading Florida will be Jim Roundtree, a speedy senior who helped wreck L. S. U., 18-14 and 21-6, in 1953 and 1956. L. S. U.'s attack, called the best at the Ole War Skule in over a decade, is sparked by senior fullback Jimmy Taylor, the S.E.C.'s leading scorer, and sophomore halfback Billy Cannon, the S. E. C.'s leading runner.

Battered in its 21-0 win over Kentucky, L. S. U. will not be at top speed for the Florida game. Quarterback Win Turner (broken nose against Kentucky) will start but will be hampered; several other key players have had to take it easy because of severe bruises.

Failure To Receive Loan Hurt Magnolia

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25 (UP)—A failure of Sport Service of New York to advance a $305,000 loan promised when the State Racing Commission granted Magnolia its license.

Magnolia Park closed Oct. 15, after 10 days of operation, when property owners Malcolm Woldenberg and Steven Goldring filed an eviction notice for $50,000 in back rent.

Poller testified in a bankruptcy hearing before Edmund E. Talbot Jr., referee, in U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals here.

The Louisiana Racing Commission would have to authorize a reduction in purses at the track before the budget plan could be put into operation, Poller said.

He said his budget plan was based on an average gross take of $115,000 a day.

Poller testified the track's financial problems were due to the

Tech Looking For Trouble

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Louisiana Tech's Bulldogs are expecting plenty of trouble when they tangle at Ruston tonight with Arkansas State College, the team that scored more points against the Techmen last season than any other outfit.

Kickoff time for the non-conference battle will be 8 p.m. at Tech Stadium.

The three wins were over Stephen F. Austin (19-13), Northwestern Louisiana (28-13), and Northwestern State (20-13). Losses were to Mississippi Southern (0-7) and McNeese State (6-13).

Junior High Rivals Meet Here Tonight

The North Monroe Junior High Eagles and the South Monroe Panthers meet this evening at 8 o'clock in their twice-postponed intra-city clash on the gridiron at Neville Stadium. Weather has delayed this inaugural meeting between the two teams.

Tech scouts, who saw the Arkansas Staters roll past Southeastern Oklahoma in a 32-7 contest last week, report that the Indians again have a strong, solid club that has now won three out of four frays. The Indians have also defeated Southern Illinois, 13-6, and Florence State of Alabama, 15-13. The one loss was to strong Mississippi State, 13-47.

Among the standouts back with the Arkansas crew are co-captain Frank Farella, NAIA All-American guard in '56, halfback Eddie Romeo, State's top ground gainer last season who scored a total of 42 points, and halfback Howard Cissell, a speedster who has been a starter for the past three years.

School officials agreed on the game's early start so it would be over in time for fans to attend the Northeast-Southeastern game at Brown Field.

Redskin, Lion Contest Only League Scrap

Both teams are undefeated this season, North beating Ruston, 20-0, and Jonesboro, 34-0, while South beat Ouachita, 41-6; Ruston, 33-0, and Jonesboro twice, 45-12 and 20-0.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The only Gulf States Conference football competition this week is the tilt between Southeastern Louisiana's defending champions and Northeast Saturday night. All other games are non-conference.

Starters in the Arkansas backfield will be: quarterback, Billy Caldwell (176); left half, Eddie Romeo (165); right half, Howard Cissell (170); and fullback, Charles Bramlett (190).

The champions are seeking their first conference victory this season, having tied the only conference team played so far. Southeastern managed to hold Southwestern Louisiana Institute to a 7-7 tie.

Three Tech first stringers are still on the injury list and are not expected to see duty in the Saturday night fray. They are halfback George Sumlin and fullback Wayne Bourgeois, both with knee injuries, and center Charles Stewart with a fractured leg.

The game with Northeast should reveal Southeastern's chances to defend its title. Northeast will show the defenders whether the tie was a fluke or the first step off the GSC throne.

The GSC leaders go against outside competition. Louisiana Tech is host to tough Arkansas State and McNeese State to McMurry.

When to Fish or Hunt SOLUNAR TABLES by John Alden Knight

Northwestern is host to Delta State and SLI travels to Trinity (Tex.).

Southeastern has lost prestige in bowing to East Texas State and Mississippi Southern, top Southern small-college teams. Southeastern's first victory this year came last week with a 21-19 decision over Florence State.

The schedule of Solunar Periods as printed below has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

Southeastern has a strong running attack in Wayne Dugas, Tommy B-ll and Bobby Dugas, and a capable passer in quarterback Bill Hawkins.

Northwestern's best running strength is in Don Reynolds and Tony Harrell, while it has Everett Reynolds and Nathan Zametto to bolster its passing game.

A look at current football statistics might lead to the belief that Colorado's team, long a difficult rival for Oklahoma to handle, might stop the Sooners' 44-game winning streak today. But don't count on it.

People who observe football professionally know there's more to the game than figures show, and they've established Oklahoma as the nation's No. 1 college team and as favorite to win by about four touchdowns.

This is one of about a dozen big games on this mid-season Saturday which involve leading contenders for major conference titles and the cash and glory that goes with post-season bowl games. Even though Colorado has come within eight points of Oklahoma in three of their last four meetings, some of the others could turn out to be closer and more exciting than the 1957 Sooners-Buffalo clash.

Colorado is listed as the nation's leading team in rushing and third in total offense. Halfback Bob Stransky also is No. 1 in individual rushing with an imposing 635-yard total. Oklahoma, usually the offense leader, is down in 10th place and holds the same rating in total defense.

Colorado has attained this rating while piling up 146 points against five opponents and yielding 93. Most of the Buffs' opponents appear weaker than the four which Oklahoma has outscored 134-21. The one common rival, Kansas, edged Colorado 35-34 but took a 7-0 beating from Oklahoma last week with the Sooners' second unit doing most of the damage.

The inevitable conclusion is that if Colorado should win, it would be an upset to obscure all those that happened last week.

Texas A&M, Iowa, Duke, Auburn, Mississippi and Notre Dame, all of which so far have escaped the upset scourge and trail Oklahoma in the weekly Associated Press poll ratings, figure prominently in today's big games. Michigan State, which enjoyed the No. 1 ranking briefly before being knocked off by Purdue, takes on one of the leading upset creators, Illinois.

The Texas Aggies, shooting for the Southwest Conference title and the Cotton Bowl, takes on twice-beaten but still troublesome Baylor. Duke can just about clinch the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and the Orange Bowl bid if it beats North Carolina State, and Mississippi, the Southeastern Conference leader, tackles upset-victim Arkansas from the Southwest.

Iowa, now the only undefeated member of the Big Ten, has a comparatively easy assignment against four-time loser Northwestern, but other Big Ten contenders have some rugged assignments. Minnesota and Michigan bump heads in a game which likely will mean elimination of the loser from the title race. The same situation prevails in the Ohio State-Wisconsin and Michigan State-Illinois games.

Notre Dame, refreshed by a week off after beating Army, tackles the big Pitt team which lost to Army last Saturday. That victory gave the Cadets the No. 9 rating, and they're not risking it seriously by going south to play Virginia.

With Army away, the East's top game brings together tied but unbeaten Syracuse and twice-beaten Penn State. Syracuse has to win this to remain a contender against Army for the unofficial Eastern championship.

Surprising Louisiana State, ranked 10th, plays Florida at Gainesville. After five night games, the Tigers may find daylight a bit strange.

11 Tulane Gridders In Last Home Scrap

NEW ORLEANS (Special) — Eleven members of the Tulane grid team will play their final game before a home crowd when the Greenies take on Georgia Tech here tonight at 8 o'clock in the annual homecoming clash.

The group includes three ends, one tackle, two guards, one center, one quarterback, two halfbacks and one fullback. Seven of them have had starting roles this season and the others have played in early games. As a group they have earned 18 letters, with one three-year letter winner and seven two-year men on the list.

Gene Newton, the Greenies' veteran quarterback from Shreveport, halfback Tommy Warner and end Bill Wilson have seen the most service. Warner, a 22-year-old New Orleans native, is one of the two three-year lettermen now playing in the South-

One of his most standout performances was in the 1955 Auburn game, when he stopped a late Plainsmen threat by intercepting a pass and returning it for 87 yards and the clinching TD. His 89-yard punt return for a tally against Virginia Tech this season tied the previous best punt return turned in by a Tulane player.

Newton, who has contributed much to the Tulane grid picture the past three years, has started at quarterback in the last 24 Tulane games. He broke into the lineup early in the 1955 opener against VMI and has been the No. 1 signal-caller ever since. Newton's spectacular 86-yard run paced the upset of Ole Miss in 1956 and his 54-yard return of an intercepted pass highlighted Tulane's lone win this season, the 20-6 victory over Marquette.

Billon, another New Orleans product, is the only returning starter in the line from 1956. He has caught 13 passes and scored four touchdowns in his two and a half seasons.

Other seniors, all starting for the first time this year are center Benny Ray Tyler from Springhill, fullback Roy Marcel from Springhill, who started the first two games this season but has been sidelined since with a pesky ankle injury since. Montgomery should play this week, however. In addition to the seven who have had starting roles, end Ronnie Riley of Baton Rouge, guards D. A. Emerson of Marshall, Texas and James Walker of Bourg, and right-halfback Virgil Jester, are seniors who will be playing their final home game.

Emerson has played a lot this season as the No. 1 reserve left guard, but is nursing a hurt leg this week. Jester has furnished relief at the right halfback slot.

Coach Bobby Dodd is expected to start ends Jerry Nabors and Ted Smith; tackles, Urban Henry and Raucsey Mason, guards, Dan Theodocion and Leon Askew, center, Don Stephenson; quarterback, Fred Braselton; halfbacks, Stan Flowers and Cal James; and fullback, Lester Simerville.

Saturday's game will be the 23rd meeting in a series that began in 1916. Tech leads in the series, 15-7.

The homecoming program for returning alumni will highlight the pre-game day on the Tulane campus. Game plans include a performance before the game by two NORC midjet football teams and the Veterans of Foreign Wars drum and bugle corps. Half-time ceremonies will be a combined effort of the Tulane band, NROTC units and the Alumni department. The homecoming queen, Miss Jean Wiggins, of Memphis, Tenn., will be crowned at half-time by the incoming president of the Alumni Association, who will be elected during the afternoon meeting of the group.

Pitt's Coach Soothes Army Holding Talk

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25 (UP)—Capt. Tom Hamilton, University Pittsburgh athletic director, chastised one of his coaches today for saying Army and Oklahoma football players practiced "holding" infractions.

"There has been too much said already as an aftermath of an off-the-cuff remark by one of our coaches," he declared. "It should be made clear that any implied criticism did not represent the feeling of the University of Pittsburgh family."

Hamilton's statement was prompted by a remark of end coach Ernie Hefferle following last Saturday's 29-13 loss to Army.

"They do a thing up there at Army that Oklahoma does—and that's holding," Hefferle said. "The way they do it you have to practice it. It's tough enough to win a game as it is but when you have to battle a thing like that, it's tougher."

Hefferle was on a scouting mission last Saturday but viewed Pitt-Army movies.

Hamilton said this year's Army team was one of the finest he has ever seen. He said it "outplayed us and well deserved its decisive victory."

The Pitt official said he had only the highest regard for Army coach Earl (Red) Blaik and coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma.

"Having coached against Earl Blaik over the years and counting him a personal friend, I have the highest regard for him on and off the field," Hamilton said.

"I feel exactly the same toward my old shipmate, Bud Wilkinson, and personally regret any reflections conjured up on the basis of an ill-conceived remark by a normal good sportsman, Ernie Hefferle, who did not witness the game."

2 Key Players Cut Off North Carolina Squad

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 25 (UP)—Coach Jim Tatum dismissed two key players, quarterback Dave Reed and tackle Leo Russavage, and Bernie Donatelli, a junior guard from his University of North Carolina football squad today for breaking training rules.

The action came on the eve of Saturday's North Carolina-Wake Forest game at Winston-Salem, N. C.

Tatum did not divulge the nature of the rules infractions, but said the incident occurred Thursday night.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 25 (UP)—Branch Rickey, board chairman of the Pittsburgh Pirates of the National League, today predicted the Los Angeles Dodgers would win the league pennant next year. # Whooping Crane Stamps To Be Sold On Nov. 22

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (UP)—The Post Office Department today added New Orleans, La., to the cities where the whooping crane stamp will have its first day's each No. 22.

The other cities are Corpus Christi, Tex., adjacent to the cranes' coastal wintering grounds, and New York City, where the American Stamp Dealers Assn. will be in annual session.

New Orleans was added in recognition of the fact that the first whooping cranes to be hatched in captivity were hatched in that city's Audubon Park Zoo earlier this year.

The crane stamp, a three-center, is one of a series of wildlife conservation.

SEC GAME OF WEEK

LSU, Florida Offer High-Scoring Game

BATON ROUGE, La. (Special) — Louisiana State's Tigers, battered physically but still unbeaten in Southeastern Conference play, take on Florida's swift-striking Gators in Gainesville, Fla., this afternoon in the SEC's feature game.

Kickoff time for Florida's homecoming game is set for 1:30 p.m. (CST). The game is rated as a toss-up.

L. S. U., the South's biggest surprise this fall, has won four in a row since an opening game loss and is tied for the S. E. C. lead with Auburn and Ole Miss. Florida, rated as a top contender for league honors, has a 1-1 S.E.C. mark after last week's upset by Mississippi State.

An L. S. U. squad of 37 players went by plane to Gainesville Friday for the battle.

From the talent of both teams, the game should be high scoring and exciting. Each team has a splendid backfield and each has averaged three touchdowns per

Tech Looking For Trouble

RUSTON, La. (Special) — Louisiana Tech's Bulldogs are expecting plenty of trouble when they tangle at Ruston tonight with Arkansas State College, the team that scored more points against the Techmen last season than any other outfit.

Junior High Rivals Meet Here Tonight

The North Monroe Junior High Eagles and the South Monroe Panthers meet this evening at 6 o'clock in their twice-postponed intra-city clash on the gridiron at Neville Stadium. Weather has delayed this inaugural meeting between the two teams.

School officials agreed on the game's early start so it would be over in time for fans to attend the Northeast-Southeastern game at Brown Field.

Both teams are undefeated this season. North beating Ruston, 20-0, and Jonesboro, 41-6; Ruston, 33-0, and Jonesboro twice, 45-12 and 20-0.

The Panther squad of Coach Clyde Perkins offers Walter Causey, Jerry Jones, Bill Adams, James Shaw, Billy Darden, Randall Fallin, Ronnie Clark, Sam Walker, Frank Keith, Louis Leggett, Jimmy Green, Bill Davidson, Sonny Platt, Jimmy Vallerie, Bernard Bryant, Pat Moody, Grady Hudson, Glenn Davis, Raymond Emmons, Charles Ackel, Bill Bragg, Johnny Segars, Gary Gannaway, DeWayne Williams, John Howard, James Murphy, Oran Leonard, Jasper Kimball, Raymond Woolsey, Lawson Moore, Larry Shavers, Jimmy Brasher, Buddy Pearson, Alva Rae Jowers, and James Gilley.

Kickoff time for the non-conference battle will be 8 p.m. at Tech Stadium.

Coach Gene Harlow of Arkansas State has 18 lettermen and almost his entire starting team back from the 1956 Indian team that beat the Techmen, 13-21, in a tilt at Jonesboro, Ark. That was the only game in 1956 in which a team scored three TD's against the Bulldogs.

Tech scouts, who saw the Arkansas Staters roll past Southeastern Oklahoma in a 32-7 contest last week, report that the Indians again have a strong, solid club that has now won three out of four frays. The Indians have also defeated Southern Illinois, 13-6, and Florence State of Alabama, 15-13. The one loss was to strong Mississippi State, 13-47.

The Techsters will be shooting for their fourth win of the season at the expense of the visitors. Tech's season record is 3-2 and the Gulf States standing is 2-1.

Redskin, Lion Contest Only League Scrap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The only Gulf States Conference football competition this week is the tilt between Southeastern Louisiana's defending champions and Northeast Saturday night. All other games are non-conference.

The champions are seeking their first conference victory this season, having tied the only conference team played so far. Southeastern managed to hold Southwestern Louisiana Institute to a 7-7 tie.

The game with Northeast should reveal Southeastern's chances to defend its title. Northeast will show the defenders whether the tie was a fluke or the first step off the GSC throne.

The GSC leaders go against outside competition. Louisiana Tech is host to tough Arkansas State and McNeese State to McMurry. Tech and McNeese share the conference lead with 2-1 records.

Northwestern is host to Trinity State and SLI travels to Trinity (Tex.).

Southeastern has lost prestige in bowing to East Texas State, top Mississippi Southern, top Southern small-college teams. Southeastern's first victory this year came last week with a 21-19 decision over Florence State.

Southeastern has a strong running attack in Wayne Dugas, Tommy B-ll and Bobby Dugas, and a capable passer in quarterback Bill Hawkins.

Northeast's best running strength is in Don Reynolds and Tony Hartsell, while it has Everett Reynolds and Nathan Zametto to bolster its passing game.

Mrs. A. Krogmire Speaks On Career Qualification At YWCA To B-PW Club

In charge of the program held at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday night was the career advancement committee, with Mrs. Frances White as chairman. Hostesses for the evening were members of the public relations committee, assisted by Miss Maibel Hood and Mrs. Mary Gene Lea.

Mrs. Edna Manley, in reviewing her teaching career related that in the earlier year she was cast in the role of teacher principal in a Missouri rural community, where she taught four grades. After obtaining her degree in 1944 she became a teacher in the Ouachita parish schools, which position she still holds. In addition she recently attained a coveted goal, teaching in France during the 1956-1957 school year. While abroad she traveled extensively and particularly enjoyed her visit in Venice, the Isle of Capri and East Berlin.

In her talk, Mrs. Agnes Krogmire projected the qualifications necessary to achieve success in the business world of our modern era. In addition to ability to handle your job, of major importance is a pleasing personality, neatness, aggressiveness and ability to get along with people. "So you should be proud of your work, realize its purpose and its value to others."

Mrs. Evelyn Pankey stressed the fact that more women are presently needed in policy making posts. There are many who have the qualifications to hold such positions and they should be encouraged to prepare for public service.

To keep physically fit, emotionally serene, mentally alert and socially adjusted is of major importance to a successful business career, is the thought advanced by Mrs. Lucille Barrett. Efficiency too is a must, but by all means avoid smugness. "This well to remember also that plenty of rest is necessary to preserve the zest of life, which favorable reflects in your work."

Mrs. Mary Gene Lea distributed envelopes to those members who had volunteered to assist the United Givers Fund in their present campaign.

As an enjoyable project, B &

He reported that over 200 children, white and colored, are now enrolled. Of the 92 white teachers 28 have masters degrees, and the rest are fully qualified to teach. All of the colored teachers are also qualified, he said. He stressed the point that after the parents began with the small children that the teachers took over and did their best to continue the child's education. He stated, in conclusion, that West Carroll had one of the finest school systems in the state.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. R. F. Cummings, Mrs. D. B. Fiske and Mrs. I. M. McCurdy.

Sinatra's Fans Are Grown-Up And Still Fans

Remember the hordes of screaming, writhing, swooning, bobby-soxers who stampeded Frank Sinatra to stardom in the 1940's? Well, they are grown up young ladies now. They don't scream, writhe or swoon over Frankie any more.

But they still think he's a living doll.

Barbara Bush, who from the age of 12 to 18 was president of the Melody International Frank Sinatra fan club, with hundreds of squealing, signing, sobbing members throughout the world, keeps in touch with many of the girls.

Steadfast But Silent

She reports the fans are steadfast, but silent.

Miss Bush, now a 25-year-old receptionist, used to spearhead swarms of bobby-soxers on lightning raids that jammed stage doors, tied up traffic and drove policemen to distraction. More than once, the girls managed to tear Sinatra's clothes to tatters.

The fans thought nothing of spending their baby-sitting earnings to see a single Sinatra movie 25 or 30 times, often 5 times in one day. They collected hundreds of pictures of their idol, crammed scrapbooks with clippings about him and mooned over his phonograph records on rainy afternoons at home.

"A Living Doll"

"We feel just as strongly as ever now about Sinatra, but we have a more mature attitude," Miss Bush told the United Press in an interview. "I still enjoy myself when I see him. I think he's a doll, a living doll."

"I go to see all his films, but now I go just once. I watch all his television shows and I still enjoy his records tremendously."

Miss Bush said she was one of Sinatra's most ardent teen-aged fans and frequent swooners. Looking back at the experience, she regards it as "something that is more or less unexplainable."

Sinatra an 'Ideal'

"More or less, Frank Sinatra represented an ideal," she said. "He was the ideal man that the girls could look up to. I always said that if I had a boy friend, he would be like Sinatra. I still like that type. They are all charm and personality."

Miss Bush said Sinatra actually has more fans now than during the bobby-sox heyday. That, she explained, is because the husbands of the ex-teenagers no longer think Sinatra is a square. They go to see his movies too, she said.

"I have no regrets," Miss Bush said. "I look back very fondly on the old days. It was a wonderful experience. I enjoyed every minute of it. It was part of being a teen-ager, one of the experiences of growing up."

East Carroll's Woman's Club To Support Youth

An interesting talk by Mrs. Anna R. Cox, telling of her recent trip to Europe, was the highlight of the meeting of the Carroll Woman's Club, held in the home of Mrs. W. H. Mahen. Mrs. Cox showed scenic cards from each city visited, described the habits and customs of the people and told of the forms of entertainment available, especially with reference to operas and concerts, in which she was most interested.

Mrs. E. H. Ragus, club president called the meeting to order with a unison recitation of the club collect. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. H. T. Van Fossen and the treasurer's report given by Mrs. H. L. Kennedy.

Miss Doris Bourgeois Complimented With A Shower At Hatten's

Mrs. Dale Hatten, with Mrs. Nayton Bourgeois, complimented Miss Doris Bourgeois this week with a linen shower held in the Hatten home on Lindenman.

Miss Bourgeois is the fiancée of Frederick Eugene Cowan, and her wedding will be an event of November twenty third.

Arrangements of golden yellow baby mums predominated in the reception area, and bowls of roses flanked a miniature bride beneath a silvered arch. The refreshment table was strikingly laid in cream lace over cinnamon brown and centered with chrysanthemums in glowing autumn shades, and Miss Evelyn Beavers presided at the punch bowl.

The honor guest was frocked in an aqua and black sheath of corduroy with which she wore ebony accessories, and her gift corsage of butter-colored button mums. She stood with her hostesses to receive her guests, among whom were: Mrs. Joe Gowan, Mrs. M. A. Kutz, Mrs. Mildred Moore, Mrs. E. Bourgeois, Mrs. M. A. Hatten, Mrs. George Zuber, Mrs. Clara Witherington, Mrs. Chris Hubbard, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Lonnie Guess, Mrs. M. Cooper, Mrs. J. C. Kelly, Mrs. Thomas Peters, Mrs. V. Edwards, Mrs. E. Beavers, Mrs. Clara Whitehead, Mrs. M. Ferracci, Mrs. A. Graft, Mrs. H. Cooper, Mrs. S. Johnston, Mrs. Anding, and Mrs. V. Henderson.

THANKSGIVING GIFT

When Americans gather around the groaning board on Thanksgiving Day many of them will be wearing leather shoes that are lineal descendants of the deerskin moccasins Chief Massasoit and his braves brought as presents to the white settlers at the first Thanksgiving feast.

For the moccasin shoe is one of the American Indian's most famous contributions to Western culture. True, a similar leather foot covering has been worn since earliest times. But these first "shoes" were of one piece of leather wrapped around the foot and tied with leather thongs.

It was the American Indian who came up with the idea of a second piece of leather placed over the top of the toes and stitched to the side of the shoe to make what we all recognize today as the moccasin toe. In a camp or house slipper moccasin, the sole and side are all of one piece of leather, but the popular dress or casual shoe with a moccasin toe has a separate leather sole.

Mrs. A. Krogmire Speaks On Career Qualification At YWCA To B-PW Club

In charge of the program held at the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday night was the career advancement committee, with Mrs. Frances White as chairman. Hostesses for the evening were members of the public relations committee, assisted by Miss Maibel Hood and Mrs. Mary Gene Lea.

Mrs. Edna Manley, in reviewing her teaching career related that in the earlier year she was cast in the role of teacher principal in a Missouri rural community, where she taught four grades. After obtaining her degree in 1944 she became a teacher in the Ouachita parish schools, which position she still holds. In addition she recently attained a coveted goal, teaching in France during the 1956-1957 school year. While abroad she traveled extensively and particularly enjoyed her visit in Venice, the Isle of Capri and East Berlin.

In her talk, Mrs. Agnes Krogmire projected the qualifications necessary to achieve success in the business world of our modern era. In addition to ability to handle your job, of major importance is a pleasing personality, neatness, aggressiveness and ability to get along with people. Also you should be proud of your work, realize its purpose and its value to others.

Mrs. Evelyn Pankey stressed the fact that more women are presently needed in policy making posts. There are many who have the qualifications to hold such positions and they should be especially encouraged to prepare for public service.

To keep physically fit, emotionally serene, mentally alert and socially adjusted is of major importance to a successful business career, is the thought advanced by Mrs. Lucille Barrett. Efficiency too is a must, but by all means avoid smugness. "It's well to remember also that plenty of rest is necessary to preserve the zest of life, which favorably reflects in your work."

Mrs. Mary Gene Lea distributed envelopes to those members who had volunteered to assist the United Givers Fund in their present campaign.

Sinatra's Fans Are Grown-Up And Still Fans

Remember the hordes of screaming, writhing, swooning bobby-soxers who stampeded Frank Sinatra to stardom in the 1940's?

Well, they are grown up young ladies now. They don't scream, writhe or swoon over Frankie any more.

But they still think he's a living doll.

Barbara Bush, who from the age of 12 to 18 was president of the Melody International Frank Sinatra fan club, with hundreds of squealing, sighing, sobbing members throughout the world, keeps in touch with many of the girls.

Steadfast But Silent

She reports the fans are steadfast, but silent.

Miss Bush, now a 25-year-old receptionist, used to spearhead swarms of bobby-soxers on lightning raids that jammed stage doors, tied up traffic and drove policemen to distraction. More than once, the girls managed to tear Sinatra's clothes to tatters.

The fans thought nothing of spending their baby-sitting earnings to see a single Sinatra movie 25 or 30 times, often 5 times in one day. They collected hundreds of pictures of their idol, crammed scrapbooks with clippings about him and mooned over his phonograph records on rainy afternoons at home.

'A Living Doll'

"We feel just as strongly as ever now about Sinatra, but we have a more mature attitude," Miss Bush told the United Press in an interview. "I still enjoy myself when I see him. I think he's a doll, a living doll."

"I go to see all his films, but now I go just once. I watch all his television shows and I still enjoy his records tremendously."

Miss Bush said she was one of Sinatra's most ardent teen-aged fans and frequent swooners. Looking back at the experience, she regards it as "something that is more or less unexplainable."

Sinatra an 'Ideal'

"More or less, Frank Sinatra represented an ideal," she said. "He was the ideal man that the girls could look up to. I always said that if I had a boy friend, he would be like Sinatra. I still like that type. They are all charm and personality."

Miss Bush said Sinatra actually has more fans now than during the bobby-sox heyday. That, she explained, is because the husbands of the ex-teenagers no longer think Sinatra is a square. They go to see his movies too, she said.

"I have no regrets," Miss Bush said. "I look back very fondly on the old days. It was a wonderful experience. I enjoyed every minute of it. It was part of being a teen-ager, one of the experiences of growing up."

East Carroll's Woman's Club To Support Youth

Mrs. Cox showed scenic cards from each city visited, described the habits and customs of the people and told of the forms of entertainment available, especially with reference to operas and concerts, in which she was most interested.

Mrs. E. H. Ragus, club president called the meeting to order with a unison recitation of the club collect. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. H. T. Van Fossen and the treasurer's report given by Mrs. H. L. Kennedy.

Mrs. H. P. DuBose was welcomed as a new member. The club voted to donate the sum of $25.00 to the Allied Youth program, which is one of their projects.

Those present for the meeting included Mrs. H. P. Dubos, Mrs. A. S. Herzog, Mrs. R. K. Howard, Mrs. H. L. Kennedy, Mrs. C. R. McCammon, Mrs. J. E. Peeler, Mrs. E. H. Ragus, Mrs. T. Slagle, Mrs. R. S. Reed, Mrs. H. T. Van Fossen, and Miss Eunice Howard.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Mother Puzzled; Baby Doesn't Finish Bottle

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED mother, not the baby, who feels it is quite obvious that when a baby is being fed at the breast, you feed him until he stops and acts as if he had had enough to eat. You do not, unless there is some particular reason for it, try to determine exactly how many ounces he has consumed. You expect him to eat until he is full and then stop, and that is just about what he does.

But when it comes to bottle feeding, the mother assumes a different attitude. If the baby leaves two ounces or so in the bottle, then she tries all kinds of methods to get him to take the bottle until it is empty. It is the baby is getting as much as he needs, even if it is less than was figured for him. If he is gaining too slowly, then there may be other factors which might be improved.

Perhaps the bottle nipple is too slow. Up-end the bottle and see if the milk drops rapidly from it (doesn't run in a stream, but just drops.)

If it does not, then increase the opening in the nipple. You can do this by pressing the eye - end of a needle into a cork. Then holding the cork in your hand heat the end of the needle red - hot in a gas flame. Puncture the nipple with this hot needle.

Try Rest Period
If this was not the trouble, maybe you are not giving the baby a rest period. When he stops eating, set him upright and pat or just massage his back. In a few minutes he will probably reward you with a big burp.

Time To Pack Suitcase
Get Out Before Too Late

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann: I'm a woman 42 years of age who needs advice badly. I've had three firm proposals in the past 11 years, but my mother cleverly picked each prospect apart and made him appear unworthy, and finally, unattractive.

She's a demanding person and has made me feel like a little girl who doesn't know anything. I've been devoted to her since I was 21. My older sister was smart enough to get out and marry.

Mother is 73 now and suffers with arthritis. She has a good income and a practical nurse in constant attendance. Every day she claims she's dying and that I'll have plenty of time to "run around with men" after she's in her grave. She says since her days are numbered I owe it to her to be an obedient daughter and stay by her side until the end. Is there any hope for me?

Strangled
If your mother lives to be 100 you will have a chance to be an "obedient daughter" of 69. Your opportunities for marriage would be considerably reduced, Madame. So my advice is to find a place of your own and make a life for yourself.

You're in a much better spot than most girls who have aged and ailing mothers. You're not dependent upon you for income and care. If she hasn't persuaded you that you don't know how to pack a suitcase—pack one and get out pronto.

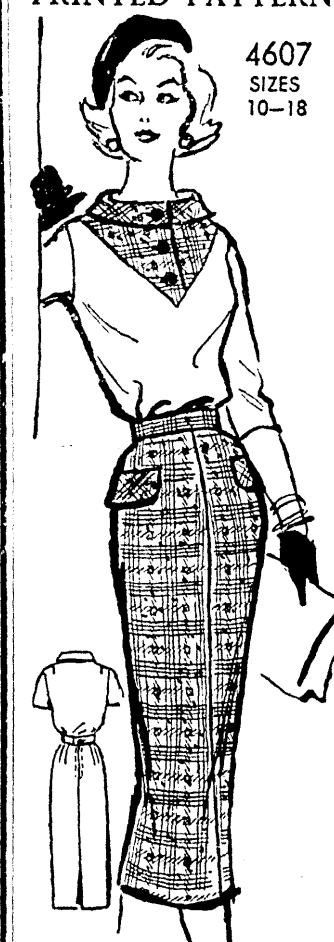

Dear Ann: You're a woman with good sense. Will you please tell my wife to stay at home where she belongs?

We've been married 15 years, and have two boys 13 and 11. My wife got the cockeyed notion she'd like to go back to work. So back she went to her old job, with a healthy raise in pay. She thought this was a great compliment, but I tried to explain to her that all salaries have gone up in the past 15 years.

We don't need the money. In fact, after taxes, car fare, lunches and the cleaning woman an extra three days a week, there isn't much left. But she claims her life was becoming dull and she

WHY GROW OLD?

Busy Mothers, Here's Minimum Beauty Care

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Women often write to ask what I consider to be the absolute minimum in beauty care for good results. A letter in front of me says, "I am determined to give myself the necessary care to delay aging and prolong my youth as long as possible."

"I am 45 years old and very young for my age in energy and personality and appearance, so people tell me. I know that from now on it is up to me to a big extent. However, I have three teen-age children and do all my own work so you can see that I do not have a lot of time. Please tell me what you think to be essential."

Answer

Of course we cannot consider any beauty routine without taking into consideration a health routine, for the latter is the basis of good looks. Therefore, I take it for granted that you will eat correctly and according to the latest dictates of fine nutrition; that you will exercise regularly; that you will get enough sleep and take short rest periods; that you will discipline yourself mentally and emotionally to a happy positive outlook.

Madison Avenue pink shirts; and the return of the elaborate dinner blouse.

Fabrics are on the whole soft, light and fragile, with dressmaker details such as pleated ruffles, jabots, bows, cow necklines, lace edgings, hemstitching, tucking and delicate embroideries. Dramatic silk prints also are important in the holiday blouse line-up, which promises to outdo up.

The following is a list of essentials for the activities which are usually thought of as a beauty routine:

1. Cleanse the face twice a day, using soap and water if your skin is oily or normal and cleansing cream if it is dry.

2. Lubricate your face, leaving the cream or oil on all night or for several hours a day. Even the woman with oily skin may require an eye cream from 40 on.

3. Pat eye cream on just before going to sleep at night.

4. Massage the scalp for 10 or 15 minutes sometime every 24 hours.

5. Use a hand lotion each time you wash your hands and apply one to your hands and elbows before going to sleep at night.

6. I take it for granted that your daily bath is a regular part of your life.

7. Naturally you will have to take time for your weekly shampoo and manicure.

8. Facial and neck exercises will be a bonus if you can spend even 15 or 20 minutes this way.

This may sound like a big order but, actually, it does not take a lot of time to do these things; and such small rituals done faithfully, work wonders.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Mother Puzzled; Baby Doesn't Finish Bottle

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
It is quite obvious that when a baby is being fed at the breast, you feed him until he stops and acts as if he had had enough to eat. You do not, unless there is some particular reason for it, try to determine exactly how many ounces he has consumed. You expect him to eat until he is full and then stop, and that is just about what he does.

mother, not the baby, who feels that he must eat all that is prepared for him.
Letter
Mrs. G. L. T. writes, "My baby is very slow to finish the bottle. He'll take half of it and then lie and look around and if you try to put the nipple in his mouth, he pushes it out."
"This worries me as I think he should take all I give him. The doctor has figured it according to his needs and it bothers me that he is uninterested in it. Can you help?"
Let's first ask yourself: Is the baby's weight going up in a satisfactory way? If so, then he pro-baby is getting as much as he needs, even if it is less than was figured for him. If he is gaining too slowly, then there may be other factors which might be improved.

Perhaps the bottle nipple is too slow. Up-end the bottle and see if the milk drops rapidly from it (doesn't run in a stream, but just drops.)
If it does not, then increase the opening in the nipple. You can do this by pressing the eye - end of a needle into a cork. Then holding the cork in your hand heat the end of the needle red - hot in a gas flame. Puncture the nipple with this hot needle.
Try Rest Period
If this was not the trouble, maybe you are not giving the baby a rest period. When he stops eating, set him upright and pat or just massage his back. In a few minutes he will probably reward you with a big burp.

YOUR PROBLEMS

Time To Pack Suitcase
Get Out Before Too Late

was fed up with pink teas and the Ladies Aid. Maybe I'm just an old-fashioned boy but I think a woman's place is at home with her kids. Take the floor and tell her off good, Annie.—Vic
At home with WHAT kids? If your boys are 11 and 13 they're in school, unless the little geniuses have already graduated.
If you think Mama ought to be home when the kids return from school she should work a shorter day so this can be arranged. But a woman who enjoys outside employment should not be ordered to stay home. You'll be happier if she is happier. If an outside job can give her more a boost, encourage it.
Dear Ann: My steady boy friend's brother is getting married next month. He's going to be best man and I've been invited to the wedding as a guest. This is the problem:
The wedding party is going out on a bender after the rehearsal dinner. This is considered "tradition." My boy friend tells me he has to escort one of the bridesmaids. I think it's a real dirty trick and furthermore I told him so. I simply will not stand for it. What do you think I ought to do?
—Me
Sit down and cool off before you pop a blood vessel. Your boy friend isn't getting married—his brother is. You had best be gracious about it. He's going anyway.
If your romance is so shaky that you can't let the guy out of your sight for a single night, there's bound to be trouble ahead. The best way I know to strangle a romance is to start acting like a warden.
Confidentially: Eager to Know: The material you describe sounds as if it barely got through the mails. Don't put any faith in that trash. Your doctor can give you the straight goods — without art work.
Young at Heart: Love at first sight is from the story books. Take a second look. You may see something you hadn't noticed before.
Crew Cut: What do I think? I think the same as your mother and dad. That cutie conned you out of a very nice sweater.
(Ann Landers will be happy to help you with your problems. Please send them to her in care of this newspaper and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.)
Heat orange juice with a little sugar; add grated orange rind and lots of chopped water cress. Serve this sauce with roast duck.
You probably know how delicious basil is in tomato dishes; try it sometimes with veal.
If you can find some inexpensive bamboo chop sticks you can use them for impaling morsels of food to be grilled over charcoal. Soak the sticks well in water before using to prevent their burning.

BenJack Cage Gets 10-Year Jail Term

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—BenJack Cage, who pyramided charm, a smile and an idea into the ICT insurance-investment empire, was convicted today of embezzling $100,000 from that empire and given 10 years in prison.

The jury deliberated 1½ hours.

The labor-backed ICT Insurance Co. collapsed early this year after Cage had left the firm.

Defense Attorney M. R. Irion said he did not think it necessary for Cage to take the stand, saying he felt the state had not proved its charge the former insurance promoter embezzled $100,000 in a transaction in the ICT insurance-investment empire.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he was optimistic and wanted the maximum of 10 years.

Made Arguments

Asst. Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander started the state's arguments, going over testimony which showed Cage gave Missouri Union Corp. a personal draft for $100,000. Testimony indicated the draft was paid by ICT Corp. and carried as an account receivable from Missouri Union. It was liquidated when ICT terminated the contract which gave Jack Cage & Co. (Jacco) management rights, witnesses said. BenJack Cage headed Jacco.

J. H. Maistris, secretary of United Industries, Fort Worth, formerly ICT Corp., was the final witness yesterday. He testified a balance sheet showed ICT Corp. lost $1,014,084 when it terminated the contract.

Earlier testimony by Edmund B. Wellshans, president of Missouri Union Corp., said 20,000 shares of stock were issued for the $100,000 to three persons nominated by Cage and the transaction was carried as completed.

Withdrew Funds

Wellshans then said Cage withdrew $95,000 as chairman of the Missouri Union board and reinvested it. He gave Missouri Union a note on Oxford Co. of Nevada for the $95,000, which was later repaid in a complicated deal involving the 20,000 shares of Missouri Union stock. Cage's connections with Oxford were not explained.

The state contended ICT Corp. jail and the other youth was turned over to juvenile authorities, Sheriff Grant said.

Pair Arrested As Suspects In Auto Theft

An abandoned pick-up truck found in a roadside ditch at Georgetown, led to the arrest of two Monroe youths at Cameron, La., Wednesday, it was revealed yesterday. Sheriff Bailey Grant said the pair admitted taking the vehicle from Robinson's Grocery on U. S. 165 south, October 22.

Identified in the theft was Woodward Bond, 17. The other boy was identified only as a 15-year-old juvenile.

According to Sheriff Grant, the youths admitted the theft when returned yesterday.

The truck was found by the LaSalle Parish Sheriff's Office and returned to John Robinson here, but according to local authorities sustained about $300 in damages when it was apparently wrecked.

Following the finding of the truck, the pair was apprehended by Cameron authorities and released to Deputy Walker and Buster Crowley, parish juvenile officer.

Bond is being held in the parish jail and the other youth was turned over to juvenile authorities, Sheriff Grant said.

BenJack Cage Gets 10-Year Jail Term

DALLAS, Oct. 25 (AP)—BenJack Cage, who pyramided charm, a smile and an idea into the ICT insurance-investment empire, was convicted today of embezzling $100,000 from that empire and given 10 years in prison.

The jury deliberated 1 1/2 hours. The labor-backed ICT Insurance Co. collapsed early this year after Cage had left the firm.

Defense Attorney M. R. Irion said he did not think it necessary for Cage to take the stand, saying he felt the state had not proved its charge the former insurance promoter embezzled $100,000 in a transaction in the ICT insurance-investment empire.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he was optimistic and wanted the maximum of 10 years.

Made Arguments

Asst. Dist. Atty. Bill Alexander started the state's arguments, going over testimony which showed Cage gave Missouri Union Corp. a personal draft for $100,000. Testimony indicated the draft was paid by ICT Corp. and carried as an account receivable from Missouri Union. It was liquidated when ICT terminated the contract which gave Jack Cage & Co. (Jacco) management rights, witnesses said. BenJack Cage headed Jacco.

J. H. Mairs, secretary of Unilex Industries, Fort Worth, formerly ICT Corp., was the final witness yesterday. He testified a balance sheet showed ICT Corp. lost $1,044,984 when it terminated the contract.

Earlier testimony by Edmund B. Welshans, president of Missouri Union Corp., said 20,000 shares of stock were issued for the $100,000 to three persons nominated by Cage and the transaction was carried as completed.

Withdrew Funds

Welshans then said Cage withdrew $95,000 as chairman of the Missouri Union board and reinvested it. He gave Missouri Union a note on Oxford Co. of Nevada for the $95,000, which was later repaid in a complicated deal involving the 20,000 shares of Missouri Union stock. Cage's connections with Oxford were not explained.

The state contended ICT Corp. received no benefit from the transactions.

Wednesday former insurance commissioner J. Byron Saunders refused to testify on the grounds it might incriminate him.

Checks totaling $6,100 from ICT Corp. to Saunders were introduced and testimony said they were paid at Cage's orders.

Saunders is under two perjury indictments alleging he lied under oath about some financial dealings with Cage.

WOOL LETTER

Modest trade selling depressed futures after the opening and thereafter prices continued to ease on heavy commission house liquidation and trade hedge selling. The market was barely steady most of the day with buying mainly representing commission house profit taking and trade short covering. Prices were near their lows for the day, about 4 cents lower, in moderately active trading up to the decline appeared to be precipitated by weak London cables with reports that actuals in London declined 2 1/2 per cent and prices there are now below the Australian auction prices. Several trade sources anticipate that Australian auction prices will decline modestly next week. South African wool prices declined up to 2 1/2 per cent yesterday with competition restricted and clearances only moderate. London futures closed barely steady and irregular about 2 pence lower for the day.

COTTON LETTER

Courtesy Of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Bean

There have been many weather scares reflecting cotton futures markets down through the years but they're seldom experienced at this time of the year. Reports of 30 degree temperatures in Texas accompanied by occasional sleep and a forecast of cloudy weather with intermittent showers again appear to provide the major buying emphasis as prices advanced strongly from $1 to $2 per bale. The large spot firm again transferred from December into March and May at present differences and now substantially reduced the size of the long December position but still remain long in the vicinity of 100,000 bales of March and May. Ginnings through October 18 were slightly over 4 million bales as compared to 3 million a year ago. This led some to believe the next official government estimate may be reduced from previous estimates. There has still been little hedging in the market and a waiting attitude by the trade is still evident.

Veteran City Collector Of Taxes Retires

After almost 39 years of service, Bob Ed Tucker announced yesterday that he will retire as assistant secretary - treasurer and tax collector for Monroe, effective Nov. 1.

His successor will probably be named at the regular meeting of the Monroe City Council in November, officials said.

Mayor W. L. "Jack" Howard said the council is accepting the resignation at the request of the veteran employee.

Harry Strong will serve in Tucker's capacity until a permanent successor is named. P. A. Poag is secretary - treasurer.

Tucker explained that his decision came after lengthy consideration, with age, health and other personal factors involved. He added that he reached the decision reluctantly, but felt the action best.

Howard said that Tucker had been "a very loyal and faithful employee. We hate to see him leave, but he has earned his retirement."

Tucker said he does not plan to become inactive, and is already planning part-time work. A native of Union Parish, the retiree became connected with the city government Aug. 1, 1920, when Monroe's population was 14,000. He is credited with making the first tax list the city compiled within its own employee structure. That was in 1921.

City officials when Tucker came into the administration were, mayor, the late Arnold Bernstein; commissioner of finance and utilities, the late Hillyer R. Speed, and commissioner of streets and parks, Arthur V. Miller.

Tucker, in speaking of his retirement, said, "I've enjoyed working with every administration under which I have served. The city officials have asked me to serve in a capacity of counsel when needed, and I will do so with pleasure."

Police Probe Burglary Try At Two Firms

With an investigation already underway concerning the armed robbery of Henderson's Curb Market that occurred early Thursday, Monroe police yesterday began a probe into the attempted burglary of two local businesses that happened Thursday night.

Chief of Police James C. Kelly Jr., said his department has checked several leads and is continuing to investigate the market robbery in which an armed man took $345 at pistol point.

Chief Kelly said an attempt was made to enter the Eslee Watch Shop, 103 Adams St., and Gibson's Bargain Store at 723 DeSard Thursday night, but no entrance was made.

Preparing To Leave Night operator James Baker was preparing to leave Henderson's Curb market at 2000 Jackson when a man he described as youthful looking came in, armed with a pistol, and took the money from the register.

The victim described his assailant as being about five feet eight inches tall, dark hair, bare-headed, and carrying a blue-steeled pistol believed to be a .38 calibre. Reports indicate that the armed man fled in a gray 1950 Studebaker which was waiting a block away on South Grand.

Field Trip Set

ALPINE, Tex., Oct. 25 (UP)—Geologist students from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma are on a two-day field trip in the Glass Mountains and the Marathon Basin area.

The field trip is under direction of Dr. Philip B. King of the U. S. Geological Survey, Menlo Park, Calif., and G. Arthur Cooper, of the National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institute, Washington.

There are 251 students registered for trips which will be concluded Saturday.

Rare Coins Taken From Miss. Museum

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 25 (AP)—Rare coins dating from 17th century disappeared from a museum at the University of Mississippi and officials feared they have been melted for their gold.

Dr. David M. Robinson, professor of classics and archaeology, said: "I'm sure it was someone familiar with the museum. Why they even locked up the display cases after taking the coins. It was someone who knew the coins were in the display case behind a statue of Venus."

Robinson said he discovered the absence of the coins yesterday. The coins were part of the Robinson collection, so called because the professor spent more than 30 years amassing the collection which included some coins valued at $300 each.

Woman Freed In Slaying At Mobile, Ala.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 25 (AP)—A Bay St. Louis, Miss., woman whose attempt to do a good deed ended in tragedy was acquitted of second degree manslaughter charges in recorder's court today.

Mrs. Evelyn Vaughn was driving a car which struck a truck at a mobile intersection last July while carrying an expectant mother to a hospital.

Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, 52, Bayou la Batre, Ala., mother of the pregnant woman, died four days after the accident. Mrs. Irma Ewing's baby was born dead the same day.

Judge Herndon H. Wilson had already acquitted the truck driver, James Parker, 51-year-old Negro, of similar charges.

Officers quoted witnesses as saying Mrs. Vaughn's car was traveling on a city thoroughfare with the horn blowing when it ran a red light and collided with the truck.

Veteran City Collector Of Taxes Retires

After almost 39 years of service, Bob Ed Tucker announced yesterday that he will retire as assistant secretary - treasurer and tax collector for Monroe, effective Nov. 1.

His successor will probably be named at the regular meeting of the Monroe City Council in November, officials said.

Mayor W. L. "Jack" Howard said the council is accepting the resignation at the request of the veteran employee.

Harry Strong will serve in Tucker's capacity until a permanent successor is named. P. A. Poag is secretary - treasurer.

Tucker explained that his decision came after lengthy consideration, with age, health and other personal factors involved. He added that he reached the decision reluctantly, but felt the action best.

Tucker Praised

Howard said that Tucker had been "a very loyal and faithful employee. We hate to see him leave, but he has earned his retirement."

Tucker said he does not plan to become inactive, and is already planning part-time work. A native of Union Parish, the retiree became connected with the city government Aug. 1, 1920, when Monroe's population was 14,000. He is credited with making the first tax list the city compiled within its own employee structure. That was in 1921.

City officials when Tucker came into the administration were, mayor, the late Arnold Earnstein; commissioner of finance and utilities, the late H. R. Speed, and commissioner of streets and parks, Arthur V. Miller.

Tucker, in speaking of his retirement, said, "I've enjoyed working with every administration under which I have served. The city officials have asked me to serve in a capacity of counsel when needed, and I will do so with pleasure."

Police Probe Burglary Try At Two Firms

With an investigation already underway concerning the armed robbery of Henderson's Curb Market that occurred early Thursday, Monroe police yesterday began a probe into the attempted burglary of two local businesses that happened Thursday night.

Chief of Police James C. Kelly Jr., said his department has checked several leads and is continuing to investigate the market robbery in which an armed man took $345 at pistol point.

Chief Kelly said an attempt was made to enter the Estel Vatch Shop, 103 Adams St., and Gibson's Bargain Store at 723 D. St. Thursday night, but no entrance was made.

Preparing To Leave
Night operator James Baker was preparing to leave Henderson's Curb market at 2000 Jackson when a man he described as youthful looking came in, armed with a pistol, and took the money from the register.

The victim described his assailant as being about five feet eight inches tall, dark hair, bare-headed, and carrying a blue-steel pistol believed to be a .38 calibre.

Reports indicate that the armed man fled in a gray 1950 to 1954 Studebaker which was waiting a block away on South Grand.

4 Women Cops Begin Work As Traffic Officers

Monroe motorists got their first look at lady traffic officers here yesterday when our women, employed as parking meter checkers, started practical training in traffic direction.

Purpose of the training, Chief of Police James C. Kelly Jr. said, was to give additional help in traffic direction during the Christmas rush period.

Kelly pointed out that the women officials had been receiving traffic regulation instruction for about a week, but that yesterday was the first practical training given.

The chief pointed out that traffic usually starts to increase about the first of December.

Receiving the traffic instructions are Mrs. Myrtle Duggins, 506 Wood, Mrs. Jessie Jordan, 1016 North Sixth, Mrs. Lula P. Smith, 208 Powell, and Mrs. Neva P. Thornhill, 315 Thomas.

Field Trip Set

ALPINE, Tex., Oct. 25 (UP)—Geologist students from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma are on a two-day field trip in the Glass Mountains and the Marathon Basin area.

The field trip is under direction of Dr. Philip B. King of the U. S. Geological Survey, Menlo Park, Calif., and G. Arthur Cooper, of the National Museum of Natural History, Smithsonian Institute, Washington.

There are 251 students registered for trips which will be concluded Saturday.

Rare Coins Taken From Miss. Museum

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 25 (AP)—Rare coins dating before Christ disappeared from a museum at the University of Mississippi and officials feared they have been melted for their gold.

Dr. David M. Robinson, professor of classics and archaeology, said: "I'm sure it was someone familiar with the museum. Why they even locked up the display cases after taking the coins. It was someone who knew the coins were in the display case behind a statue of Venus."

Robinson said he discovered the absence of the coins yesterday.

The coins were part of the Robinson collection, so called because the professor spent more than 50 years amassing the collection which included some coins valued at $300 each.

Woman Freed In Slaying At Mobile, Ala.

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 25 (AP)—A Bay St. Louis, Miss., woman whose attempt to do a good deed ended in tragedy was acquitted of second degree manslaughter charges in recorder's court today.

Mrs. Evelyn Vaughn was driving a car which struck a truck at a Mobile intersection last July while carrying an expectant mother to a hospital.

Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, 52, Bayou la Batre, Ala., mother of the pregnant woman, died four days after the accident. Mrs. Irma Ewing's baby was born dead the same day.

Judge Herndon H. Wilson had already acquitted the truck driver, James Parker, 51-year-old Negro, of similar charges.

Officers quoted witnesses as saying Mrs. Vaughn's car was traveling on a city thoroughfare with the horn blowing when it ran a red light and collided with the truck.
